Programs

Star Tilt, hy's Talk Today

12 m. — Church of Air (WCCO): the Rev. James H. Ryan on "The Pope and Peace."

3 p. m. — National Vespers (WENR): Dr. Harry E. Fosdick on "When Life Gets Us Down."

5 p. m. — Catholic Hour WIBA, WMAQ): "Whence Comes War" by the Rev. F. J. Sheen.

8:15 p. m. — Sunday Evening Club (WIND): Ivan Lee Holt, Methodist leader, speaks on world conditions.

Discussion

9:30 a. m. — People's Platform (WBBM): "The Congressional Issues of 1940."

10:15 a. m. — Reviewing Stand (WGN): Dr. William M. McGovern, Far East authority, and Irving Pflaum, foreign editor of Chicago Times, discuss termination of the U. S.-Japan trade pact.

1:30 p. m. — Chicago Round Table (WIBA, WMAQ): Maynard C. Krueger, University of Chicago, and Arthur W. Marget, University of Minnesota, compare views on the wage-hour question.

3:15 p. m. — Frank Murphy (WMAQ): supreme court appointee speaks on "The Challenge of Intolerance," discussing the Palestine Jewish problem.

Drama

12:35 p. m. — Grand Hotel (WBBM): "Vengeance is Mine" opens new series.

1 p. m. — Great Plays (WENR): "The Rivals" . . . Democracy in Action (WIND): the work of the U. S. office of education and the social security board.

4:30 p. m. — The Shadow (WGN): "Murder in the Deathhouse," crime and politics mix.

5 p. m. — Silver Theater (WBBM): "A Rose for Julie" with Cary Grant.

5:30 p. m. — Gene Autry (WBBM): opens series of radio westerns.

7 p. m. — Ellery Queen (WBBM): "The Adventure of the Scarecrow Man."

7:30 p. m. — One Man's Family (WMAQ): at a new time.

8:30 p. m. — Irene Rich (WENR): "Glorious One," the love thief.

9 p. m. — Orson Welles (WGN): Helen Hayes in "Becky Sharp."

Serious Music

10:30 a. m. — Music and American Youth (WMAQ): Detroit high school band, choir, girls' glee club.

11 a. m. — Radio City Music Hall (WCFL): Andor Foldes, pianist, plays two movements of Beethoven's fourth concerto.

2 p. m. — New York Philharmonic-Symphony (WBBM): Igor Stravinsky, conductor; Erica Morini, violin; all-Tschaikowsky program—second symphony, violin concerto in D major, "Nutcracker" suite.

4:30 p. m. — Opera Auditions (WENR): Ann Heath, New York soprano; Alfred Drake, Brooklyn baritone; music by Puccini, Herbert, Verdit, Quilter.

8 p. m. — Sunday Evening Hour (WBBM): Franco Ghione, conductor; Lawrence Tibbett, baritone; "Carnival" overture, Dvorak; "Largo al Factotum," Rossini; fifth and sixth "Hungarian Dances," Brahms; "Minuet," Paderewski; "Through the Years," Youmans; "Rolling Down to Rio," German; "Danny Deever," Damrosch; "Malaguena," Moszkowski; "In the Gloaming," Harrison; "Rakoczy" march, Berlioz.

8:30 p. m. — Familiar Music WIBA, WMAQ): "Valse Triste," Sibelius; "At Dawning," Cadman; "Ciascum lo Dice," Donizetti; "Orpheus" overture, Offenbach.

12 p. m. — Music You Want (WENR): "Rhinegold" selections, "Valse Triste," "The Gondoliers," "Caprice Viennois."

Popular Music

1 p. m. — Meet the Band (WBBM): Jack Russell orchestra.

1:30 p. m. — Anson Weeks (WBBM): June Travis, actress, as the "lovely lady."

5:30 p. m.—Show of Week (WGN): Johnny Green's band.

6:30 p. m. — Band Wagon (WMAQ): Shep Field's "rippling rhythm."

9 p. m.—Hour of Charm (WMAQ): honoring Mrs. Arthur Terry for her Red Cross work.

Variety

6 p. m. — Jack Benny (WIBA, WMAQ): returning to the "musicale" stage.

7 p. m.—Charlie McCarthy (WIBA, WMAQ): Wallace Beery and Vera Vague on the new streamlined program.

8 p. m.—Sunday Date (WGN): Edna O'Dell, Lawrence Salerno, and the Four Shades of Blue with new dance melodies.

9:30 p. m. — Home Town (WMAQ): "I Feel So Lazy" highlighted.

Sports

4 p. m.—Packers vs. All-Stars (WTMJ): Russ Winnie broadcasts from Los Angeles.

8:45 p. m. — Sports Interviews (WENR): Helen Jacobs, former tennis queen, guest.

10 p. m.—Hockey WGN): final period of Black Hawk-Montreal game.

Miscellaneous

12 m.—Poets' Corner (WTMJ): facts and anecdotes about Sara Teasdale.

2 p. m.—Mediation and Melody