

WIBA tonight will bring to the radio audience a "word and music" picture of the university's social highlight—Junior Prom. The broadcast will begin at 10:15, and will include music by Henry Busse's orchestra, an interview with the king and queen, scene descriptions, comments on who's who and what they're wearing, and music by Duke Ellington's band.

Tonight's schedule of broadcasting will bring the inauguration of a series of forums on Madison public schools, a discussion of Philippine policy on America's Town Meeting, presentation of an award to Gen. John J. Pershing, and guest appearances of Jack Haley, Claudette Colbert, Randolph Scott, Jean Parker, and others.
