

Hoover, Musician And Gob Turned Singer To Be Heard

Ex-President Will Have Unusual Message On "We, The People" Broadcast Tuesday Evening

Ex-president Herbert Hoover, leader Raymond Scott and a sailor who turned opera singer are included among Gabriel Heatter's guests on "We, The People" Tuesday at 9:00 p.m. over WABC.

Herbert Hoover according to advance information will speak not as the only living ex-president of the United States, not as Herbert Hoover humanitarian but as Herbert Hoover, American. And according to the program producers he will tell a story known to very few.

Thirty thousand dollars in unclaimed estates is the jackpot when the Court of Missing Heirs is broadcast on Tuesday at 8:30 p.m. over WABC. Unclaimed estates are of Michael Max born Murtzell Hipp and George Kelly of Terrell, Texas. Missing heir to the Hipp estate which is increasing daily since it is a gold mine is Frank Hipp and the missing heir to Kelly's $18,000 is Jim Kelly who disappeared mysteriously several years ago.

William Johnstone who has portrayed a wide variety of historical characters before the microphone and on the Broadway stage will add to his list a radio interpretation of the wild bucking Jean Laffite during the "Cavalcade of America" Tuesday over WJZ at 9:00 p.m.

Lovestruck Henry finds a beautiful nurse no panacea for his late heart attack during Aldrich Mayor's broadcast Tuesday at 8:00 p.m. over WJZ.

When Henry tobogganed into his latest couch the lovely nurse who nursed his dad after the bobsleigh mishap he didn't suspect she was engaged. A formal invitation to her wedding only makes matters worse.

Sixty-four Days High—the "In Formation Place" on Tuesday at 8:00 p.m. over WJZ will have somewhat the aspects of a Hollywood production.

Nunnally Johnson, a former New York reporter now a screen author and associate producer of the current film hit, "The Grapes of Wrath," will be guest expert that evening. Semi-regular Oscar Levant, also somewhat of an attorney on movie will occupy the other guest chair.

The King's Men will make their first appearance on the Lubber McCay and Melly program Tuesday at 9:00 p.m. over WLAF singing a song titled "Holy Smoke." Second chorus number will be "All the Things You Are."

Bob Hope's weekly stanza will have a hospital setting Tuesday at 10:00 p.m. over WLAF when Prof. Colonna serves as a doctor and Bill Goodwin and Bob's patients Skinny Lamm's band will play "Bluebirds in the Moonlight" and Judy Garland will sing "You're a Lucy Guy."

Jenny Green put his orchestra thru the piece of Ravel's Bolero is a musical highlight of the "Johnny Present" program over WLAF Tuesday at 8 p.m. The orchestra will also be heard in by the Ambassadors. Love songs by Green Vocals include "Love a Parade" by Bill Hargraves. In a Little Dutch Garden by the Ambassadors. "Let Come Back to Me" by the Swing Lountain and "Blue Danube" by Gentryne Rowe. The program marks the last of the "Undercover Squad" dramatizations. They will be replaced the following week by Rush Hughes' "Hughesville."

Maid to Order or Mandy's Candy's Dandy, the story of a minor executive of a candy company who finds himself involved in more than a taffy-pull when his wife has words with the plant manager, will be dramatized on Uncle Walter's Dog House Tuesday at 10:30 p.m. over WLAF. Lightening the suspense will be the songs of Virginia Vee.
