

r Over ons Tonight

The University of Wisconsin will observe its 91st birthday anniversary tonight with a Founders day broadcast over stations WIBA, WENR, and WTMJ at 8:30.

From Washington, D. C., Joseph E. Davies, former ambassador to Russia and Belgium and currently government advisor on foreign affairs, will speak for Badger alumni. His address is entitled "Wisconsin and the Spirit of Democracy."

The Madison portion of the broadcast, coming from the Wisconsin Union theater, will include an address by Pres. C. E. Dykstra on "Wisconsin Greets the Nation" and one by Federal Judge F. Ryan Duffy, discussing "Wisconsin Still the Leading State University." The university band and glee club will provide the musical portion of the program.
