

"Elephant Boy" Sabu Will Be A Guest On Crosby's Program

Joan Bennett And 17-Year-Old Violinist To Join With Other Regulars On Music Hall Show

The world-famed "Elephant Boy", Sabu, will meet Joan Bennett and the 17-year-old violinist, Robert Virouvai, in the visiting foyer of Bing Crosby's Music Hall Thursday.

Such regulars of Hall shindigs as Bob Burns, the Music Maids, and John Scott Trotter's orchestra will all take turns facing microphone when the proceedings are unzipped at 10:00 p. m.

Bing sings "Confucius Say," "Careless," "Sweet Potato Piper," "Marcheta," and will hark back to 1926 to come up with "Sunday" as his memory song.

Margaret Lindsay, top-ranking film star, will headline the George Jessel "Celebrity Program" Thursday at 8 p. m., over WEAF. She will take part in a special sketch with Jessel and Singer Benay Venuta. Another personality will be Dave Irwin, author and explorer, who had the Eskimo Village at the World's Fair last season. Music is under the baton of Peter Van Steeden.

Baby Snooks, not to be outdone by George Washington, is celebrating her birthday on Feb. 22, too. She'll be seven years old on that day, for it was on Feb. 22, 1933, that Fanny Brice first introduced her infant terrible to a gasping public in the "Ziegfeld Follies." Hence, there'll be a double birthday celebration on Good News of 1940, Thursday at 9 p. m. over WEAF.

As an added feature, Warren William will sink into one of his favorite characterizations to reenact preview scenes from his latest picture, "The Lone Wolf Strikes Back." Eric Blore and Iris Meredith will play opposite William in their picture roles.

Edward Arnold, master-of-ceremonies, also will present Connie Boswell, who will sing "Tumbling Tumbleweeds" and her famous swing version of "Martha," and Meredith Willson's orchestra, which will play "An Actor's Life for Me," "Temptation" and selections from Kalman's "Sari."

George Washington, the soldier and statesman, is a familiar figure to every American, but George Washington the human being—the man who loved a good joke, a game of cards, and an evening at the theatre—is almost completely unknown. Laurance H. Hart, the first President's most famous impersonator, will do his best to remedy this situation when he appears

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 22

Eastern Standard P. M.—Subtract One Hr. for CST, 2 Hrs. for MT.

(Changes in programs as listed due to last-minute network corrections)

8:30—Jack Armstrong—rbc-weaf-east

BEST BETS THURSDAY

P. M.

8:30 — Those We Love, Skill, WLW.

8:30—"As Strange As It Seems," WJR.

9:00 — "Good News" Variety, WLW.

9:00 — Rochester Philharmonic, WOWO.

9:00 — Major Bowes Amateurs, WJR.

10:00—Bing Crosby Show, WLW.

10:00 — Glenn Miller Orchestra, WJR.

on the Strange As It Seems program, Thursday at 8:30 p. m. over WABC.

The mystery of the Kensington Stone, which offers impressive evidence that Vikings reached Minnesota in 1362 — 130 years before Columbus discovered America, will furnish subject matter for an exciting dramatization on the program. Alois Havrilla is master-of-ceremonies.

Famous names in comic strips, mythology and baseball will fur-

Officials of the Lima plant of the Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Co. have announced that the Westinghouse-sponsored program, "Musical Americana," regularly carried over the NRC-Blue network, will be broadcast each Thursday night at 8 o'clock from a local radio station.

nish genial Jim McWilliams with a fun-loaded quota of sticklers when he parades his Ask-It Basket contestants before the microphone, Thursday at 8:00 p. m. over WEAF. As a prelude to McWilliams' "Anything Can Happen Basket," listeners will be invited to join the studio audience in singing the new song, "Anything Can Happen," specially written by Milton

STATIONS THAT MAKE UP