

Sultry - Voiced Songstress To Be Guest Of Templeton

Lillian Cornell To Be Heard With Famous Pianist At 9:30 P. M. Over WEAf; Dunne And Powell Teamed

Lillian Cornell, sultry-voiced songstress of screen and radio, will be Alec Templeton's guest on "Alec Templeton Time," Monday at 9:30 p. m. over WEAf in her first radio appearance since she travelled to filmland last fall.

Irene Dunne and William Powell will be starred in the Radio Theatre offering, "Love Affair" at 9 p. m. Monday over WABC, with Cecil B. DeMille directing.

Spring wanderlust will lead the Contented crew in fancy into the Danube Valley and the land of the Czigany Monday at 10 p. m. over WEAf, when Conductor Josef A. Pasternack presents a musical tribute to Hungary.

Six Junior League girls of Houston will be matched against six hard-bitten Southern Pacific Railroad men on the "True or False" quiz, Monday at 8:30 p. m. over WJZ. Dr. Harry Hagen will referee the tilt, scheduled to take place in the San Jacinto high school.

Margaret Speaks will sing the aria, "Connais-Tu le Pays," from Thomas' "Mignon" as a solo offering on the Wallenstein concert program at 8:30 p. m. Monday over WEAf. Miss Speaks also will sing Ernest Charles' "When I Have Sung My Songs," "A Heart That's Free" by Robyn, and "Schertzingel's "One Night of Love."

The orchestra, directed by Alfred Wallenstein, will play Dvorak's "Carnival" Overture, Tschai-kowsky's "Sleeping Beauty" waltz, and the traditional "Londonderry Air," arranged by Grainger.

Guy Fraser Harrison has chosen an all-Tschai-kowsky program for the Rochester Civic Orchestra concert which he will conduct on Monday at 9:30 p. m. over WJZ.

A revival of the once national rage, "The Music Goes Round and Round," will feature the Andre Kostelanetz and his "Tune-Up Time" broadcast over WABC Monday at 8 p. m. The conductor will provide direct contrast with a vocal adaptation of Rachmaninoff's "Prelude in C Sharp Minor" titled "Bells at Eventide," which will be done by the Kostelanetz chorus. Other numbers are "You Do Something to Me," "So High the Moon,"
