

Theater Drama

Fibber McGee and Molly will drop their family routine of ribbing each other long enough to appear in a radio adaptation of the film, "Mama Loves Papa," when they guestar on Radio theater tonight at 8 over station WBBM.

Other highlight programs for tonight and Tuesdaytime follow, classified:

Drama

9:30 p. m.—Playshop (WIND): "Susan. This is Vincent," a play based on cafe society.

Discussion

9:30 p. m.—Sen. Carl A. Hatch (WENR): the Democrat from New Mexico on "side issue legislation to prevent pernicious political practices."

10:15 p. m. — Rep. Martin F. Smith (WGN): the Democrat from Washington on "Americanism."

Music

7:30 p. m. — Margaret Speaks (WMAQ): "The Whole World Knows" by Kreisler and "Ouvre ton Coeur" by Bizet highlighted.

9 p. m. — Contented Hour (WIBA, WMAQ): a quick musical tour around the Mediterranean sea.

12 p. m. — Music as Desired (WENR): Selections from Verdi's "La Traviata" with La Scala orchestra.

Popular Music

6:30 p. m.—Patterns in Satan (WBBM): "Allah's Holiday" starts the unbroken half-hour of tunes.

7 p. m. — Tune-Up Time (WBBM): "Inventions Melody" introduced.

9:30 p. m.—Romance in Rhythm (WGN): Lawrence Salerno highlights "Spring in Vienna" and "Apple Blossoms and Chapel Bells."

Variety

8:30 p. m. — Alec Templeton (WIBA, WMAQ): the St. Brendan's Boys choir, guests, singing "Agnus Dei," "How High the Moon," and "Dinah." Pat O'Malley tells about when "Erbert Pinwinkle Tells the Truth."

Tuesdaytime

11:30 p. m. — Farm and Home Hour (WIBA, WMAQ): "Grass and Water on the Texas Range."

12 m. — Dane County Hour (WIBA): R. V. Hurley on "What Fertilizers for Small Grain."

2:35 p. m. — School of Air (WBBM): folk-tunes.