

Joe E. Brown and Audrey Christie will present a Broadway success, "The Milky Way", story of a milkman turned prizefighter, during the Star theater on WBBM at 7 tonight. Frances Langford will sing "Thinking of You" and Kenny Baker will do "Will You Remember?" during the Hollywood portion of the show.

Other highlights tonight:

Music

8:15 p. m. — Pageant of Melody (WGN): with Attilio Baggiore and Kathryn Witwer; program includes "Song of India," "Emperor" waltz.

8:30 p. m. — Concert Orchestra (WIND): with Mitchell Miller, oboe soloist.

Drama

6 p. m. — Hollywood Playhouse (WMAQ): Charles Boyer and Helen Mack in "Masks Off," tale of an airplane in danger.

7 p. m. — Green Hornet (WIBA): rescues secretary investigating a racket.

Discussion

7 p. m. — Louis Johnson (WENR): assistant war secretary addresses Pennsylvania Legionnaires on "America, a Trust and a Promise."

8:15 p. m. — Public Affairs (WBBM): Mrs. Robert A. Taft and Rep. Caroline O'Day (D., N. Y.) speak on League of Women Voters.

8:45 p. m. — Rep. James W. Wadsworth (WBBM): New York Republican backs Frank Gannett for presidency.

Special Events

8 p. m. — CFCF Anniversary (WIBA, WENR): "Radio of Tomorrow," with Lenox R. Lohr, others.

Variety

7 p. m. — Fred Allen (WMAQ): parodies "Information Please," interviews worm magistrate.