

Prominent personages headline the airwaves tonight. Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt will open the evening's programs with a talk before a national women's organization to be followed by Secretary of War Woodring, Admiral H. H. Stark, Assistant Secretary of State Long, Lewis Douglas, and Frank Gannett. Time and stations for these and other outstanding programs follow below, classified:

Discussion

6:30 p. m.—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt (WIBA): on "Why I Belong to the National League of Women Voters."

8:15 p. m.—Foreign Policy and National Defense (WIND): Secretary of War Woodring, Admiral H. Stark and Assistant Secretary of State Breckenridge Long representing the military, naval, and diplomatic branches of government. . . Lewis Douglas (WENR): the former director of the budget on "The Obligation of Leadership."

9:15 p. m.—Frank E. Gannett (WIBA): the aspirant for the GOP presidential nomination on "Issues of 1940—Recovery."

◇ ◇ ◇

Variety

7 p. m.—Good News (WIBA, WMAQ): Dick Powell and "The Singing Hills."

7:30 p. m. — Rudy Vallee (WIBA, WMAQ): Sigrid Gurie and Jerry Colonna assist in presenting "Marco Polo."

8 p. m.—Bing Crosby (WIBA, WMAQ): Annabella, film star, and Jose Iturbi, pianist-conductor, guests.

◇ ◇ ◇

Musical

6 p. m.—Musical Americana (WLS): George F. Roach, bass clarinetist from the University of Michigan, guest.

8 p. m.—Theater of Air (WGN): Noel Coward's "Bittersweet" with Marion Claire, soprano, and James Melton, tenor.

◇ ◇ ◇

Drama

6 p. m. — District Attorney (WMAQ): the "Peonage Racket."

6:30 p. m.—Strange As It Seems (WBEM): the hermit meets his "long dead" wife.

◇ ◇ ◇

Fridaytime

10:30 a. m.—National Farm and Home Hour (WIBA, WMAQ): "Food and Life."

11:45 p. m.—University of Purdue (WLS): dedication of the Hall of Music.

12 m.—Music Appreciation Hour (WCFL): the finale in the 13th annual series.

5:30 p. m.—Al Pearce (WBEM): returns to the air with Elmer Burt, the super salesman, and the rest of the gang.