

"Mothers Day" Theme To Be Followed On Several Shows

"Cavalcade Of America" And "Aldrich Family" Plan Special Programs; Brenda And Cobina To Find Love

Nancy Hanks, humble but gallant woman who was the mother of one of the country's greatest leaders, Abraham Lincoln, will be the subject of the "Cavalcade of America" drama Tuesday from 8 to 8:30 p. m. over WJZ.

Mother's Day is celebrated by all of the Aldriches except mother in "The Aldrich Family," starring Ezra Stone, over WJZ at 7 p. m. Tuesday.

Gabriel Heatter's "We, the People" takes on an international scope this week. Most of the program will originate in Europe, and John B. Kennedy will be on hand to analyze last minute war developments as reported by the man-in-the street at 8 p. m. over WABC.

When Fibber McGee and Molly entertain at Wistful Vista Tuesday at 8:30 p. m. over WEAf, Billy Mills' orchestra will play "Crazy Rhythm," "You, You Darling" and "Where Do I Go From Here?"

Love comes at long last to Brenda and Cobina when two strangers, Robert and William (Hope and Goodwin) enter their lives during the Bob Hope hour Tuesday at 9 p. m. over WEAf.

"Truman's Trip-Up" of "His False Movie," a sorrowful drama of a salesman who also was a candid camera fan, will be the dramatization presented during Uncle Walters Dog House program, Tuesday at 9:30 p. m. over WEAf.

Genevieve Rowe, soprano, has chosen "I See Your Face Before Me" and "Nothing But You" as solo numbers on the "Johnny Presents" program Tuesday at 7 p. m. over WEAf.
