

Old Vaudeville Team To Be On "We, The People" Program

Modern "Trilby" Will Tell How She Was Freed From Strange Hypnotic Influence; Henry Aldrich Finds New Troubles

Weber and Fields, septuagenarian comedians of the Gay 90's era; Mrs. Zane Grey, widow of the famous novelist, and Marianna Persall, a modern "Trilby" who was freed from a hypnotic influence only thru murder, are among the guests to be interviewed by Gabriel Heatter on "We, the People" at 8 p. m. Tuesday over WABC.

Ezra Stone as Henry Aldrich finds that too many girls spoil the picnic lunch when he inadvertently makes three dates for his high school class picnic in "The Aldrich Family," over WJZ at 7 p. m. Tuesday.

Roger Williams, the first exponent of true religious freedom in the new world, will be the subject of the "Cavalcade of America" dramatization on Tuesday at 8 p. m. over WJZ.

When Fibber McGeen and Molly broadcast their weekly program at 8:30 p. m. over WEAJ, Billy Mills will sing, "I'm Just Wild About Harry," "My My" and "Believing."

The first in a series of "World's Greatest Stories" at 7 p. m. over WEAJ will be an adaptation of O'Henry's "Lick Penny Lover."

TUESDAY, MAY 14

Eastern Standard Time

W in Pic
Ric cou of cla
cob
"g