

Broadcast Economy Tonight

Wendell L. Willkie, utilities president who has been mentioned often as a Republican presidential possibility, will broadcast his views on national economy and recovery when his speech at a Midwest Bankers assn. meeting in Indianapolis is aired tonight.

His address, "Reflections on Current Economic Problems," will be broadcast at 8 by WIBA, WENR, and others.

Other highlights on tonight's schedule:

Discussion

8:15 p. m. — Public Affairs (WBBM): Rep. Louis Ludlow (D., Ind.) on "How Will the National Conventions Treat the War Issue?"

8:30 p. m. — Radio Magic (WENR): Dr. O. H. Caldwell tells how radio typewriter avoids censors . . . W. W. Waymack (WIND): Des Moines editor on "The Challenge of America."

◇ ◇ ◇

Drama

6 p. m.—Hollywood Playhouse (WMAQ): Charles Boyer, Rita Hayworth in "Borrowed Victory."

8:30 p. m.—Wisconsin, Her Men and Women (WIBA): the life of Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

9:15 p. m.—Public Affairs Weekly (WIBA): "Men and Machines," story of how patients will affect tomorrow's world.

◇ ◇ ◇

Music

8:15 p. m.—Pageant of Melody (WGN): with Kathryn Witwer; Gounod's "Cavatina," aria from "Louise," Lehar selections.

10:30 p. m.—Music You Want (WENR): portions of Tschaiikowsky's sixth symphony.

◇ ◇ ◇

Quiz

10 p. m. — Marriage Club (WIBA, WENR): fishing etiquette.

◇ ◇ ◇

Variety

7 p. m.—Fred Allen (WMAQ): interviews Rose Meckenberg, exposé of fake spiritualistic mediums . . . Star Theater (WBBM): Mary Boland, Francis Lederer in "The Vinegar Tree," plus Kenny Baker, Jimmy Fidler, Johnny Weissmuller, Rudy Vallee, Ken Murray.

London—8:30 p. m.—Full News Bulletin.