

Gang Busters To Dramatize "Mystery" Saturday Evening

Hideout Of Gang Of Kidnapers And Robbers Will Be Setting For Startling Story In Latest Of Series

Mystery Castle—a luxurious country estate on Narragansett Bay, replete with underground torture chambers and used as a hideout by a gang of kidnapers and robbers—is the setting for two Gang Busters dramatizations, the first of which will be presented Saturday at 7 p. m. over WABC.

How two fliers, Jim Holcomb and Nick Benton, overcame the grimmest psychological struggle any aviator has to face—"going-up" in the air again after a serious crash—will be told by Col. Roscoe Turner during a dramatization of the two men's adventures on Sky Blazers, Saturday, at 6:30 p. m. over WABC.

One of the most important and exciting trials in American history, by which the right of every citizen to free speech was established substantially as written into the Bill of Rights, will be dramatized over WEAF Saturday at 7:00 p. m., under the title "Counsel for the Defense."

Louise Massey and the Western-
SATURDAY, MAY 18
Eastern Standard P. M.—Subtract One

ers, song and instrumental group, will swing their musical harlots in the National Barn Dance Hayloft when they are guests during the broadcast, Saturday at 8:00 p. m. over WJZ.

COURT NEWS

ALLEN CO
Common Pleas
Elicia Tollison vs Frank J. Tollison, divorce.
State of Ohio ex rel Rodney P. Lien, Supt. of Banks, etc., vs P. A. Shook. Cognovit judgment $8643.
Execution and certificate of judgment issued.
Lola Protzman vs John Protzman, alimony; plaintiff awarded alimony in sum of $100.
William Eckhart vs The Delphos