

Dewey, Gannett, Politics, Tonight

War and politics dominate the airwaves tonight. Speakers include former President Hoover, Thomas E. Dewey, R. G. Casey, Australian minister to the United States, and Frank E. Gannett. Times and details of the broadcasts:

7:30 p. m.—Herbert Hoover (WENR): "National Defense."

9 p. m.—Thomas E. Dewey (WGN): "Wars, Foreign and Domestic."

9:15 p. m.—R. G. Casey (WMAQ): "What Thinks Australia?"

10 p. m.—Frank E. Gannett (WENR): on national and foreign issues.

Other outstanding broadcasts for tonight and Tuesdaytime follow, classified:

Discussion

8:30 p. m.—"War news—Decensored" (WIND): with Irving Pflaum, foreign news editor of the Chicago Daily Times.

Drama

7 p. m.—Radio Theater (WBBM): Olivia de Havilland, Herbert Marshall, and Helen Chandler in "Vigil in the Night," a nurse and carelessness.

8:30 p. m.—Gallant American Women (WENR): the development of the postoffice, telegraph, telephone, and radio and the role of its women.

Music

6 p. m.—Tune-up Time (WBBM): medleys from the gay '90s via and "Porgy and Bess."

James Melton (WMAQ): "Make Believe" from "Snow Boat."

6:30 p. m.—Margaret Speaks (WMAQ): "Sylvia" plus a visit to the Indianapolis Speedway and introductions to Eddie Rickenbacker and Wilbur Shaw.

8 p. m.—Contented Hour (WIBA, WMAQ): "Festival" salutes Portland, Ore., the city of roses.

8:30 p. m.—Sammy Kaye, (WIBA, WMAQ): Yvette, swingstress from the Creole country, makes debut.

Variety

7:30 p. m.—Alec Templeton-time (WIBA, WMAQ): Eddie Peabody, banjo king, guest.

Tuesdaytime

10:30 p. m.—National Farm and home Hour (WIBA, WMAQ): "Following the Migrant Trail Along the Atlantic Coast."

4:05 p. m.—Indianapolis Speedway (WENR): qualifying trials. On WBBM at 4:15 p. m.

8:30—Ellen Randolph—WMAQ WTMJ