

night

Highlight attraction of the land—and the air—is the Republican national convention at Philadelphia. Tonight radio continues its complete coverage with five broadcasts.

Former President Herbert Hoover will headline tonight's broadcast with an address from the convention hall at 7:30. Stations WENR and WBBM will air the speech in this area.

Other convention programs:

7 p. m.—Sidelights (WGN).

8:15 p. m.—Reports (WBBM).

8:45 p. m.—Summary (WBBM).

10 p. m.—Summary (WIBA).

WEDNESDAYTIME

9:30 a. m.—From the Floor (WGN).

11:40 a. m.—Reports (WIBA).

2 p. m.—Reports (WIND).

4 p. m.—Resume of day (WIND).

Other outstanding programs for tonight and Wednesdaytime follow:

Quiz

6:30 p. m.—Information Please (WLS): Raymond Massey, Lincoln actor, joins Oscar Levant and the other experts.

Sports

7:40 p. m.—Baseball (WGN): White Sox vs. Washington. On WIND at 7:45.

Drama

7 p. m.—Cavalcade of America (WIBA, WENR): John T. McIntire as Dr. Walter Reed in his fight on yellow fever.

Music

6 p. m.—The Northerners (WGN): "On the Isle of May" and "You're Lovely and I'm Lonely."

8 p. m.—Tommy Dorsey (WIBA, WMAQ): replaces Bob Hope, popular music.

Variety

6 p. m.—Johnny Presents (WMAQ): Johnny Green keyboards "Ain't You Ashamed." On WIBA at 9:30 p. m.

7:30 p. m.—Fibber McGee (WIBA, WMAQ): introducing Meredith Wilson and his proposed musical revue.

8:30 p. m.—Dog House (WMAQ): a newspaperman and his "advise to the lovelorn."

Miscellaneous

7 p. m.—We, the People (WBBM): Conductor, Leopold Stowkowski, Boxer Henry Armstrong, and a "two-bit" poet tonight's highliners.

Wednesdaytime

10:30 a. m.—Farm and Home Hour (WIBA, WMAQ): a visit to the George Washington National forest.

3:30 p. m.—WHA Players (WHA): John Steinbeck's "Pastures to Heaven."