

Radio Hits a Lull Schedules Normal War Tops A

Radio hits a lull! With the Republican convention over, the airwaves' schedules are back to normal. Only war news will break the tranquility—that is until the Democratic national convention.

Outstanding programs for tonight follow, classified:

◇ ◇ ◇

Music

7 p. m.—Grant Park Concert (WCFL): Rudolph Ganz and symphony orchestra. On WIBA and WMAQ at 7:30.

7:30 p. m.—Mozart Opera Series (WGN): soloists include Vivian della Chiesa, Genevieve Rowe, and Florence Vickland.

7:45 p. m.—Saturday Night Serenade (WBBM): "Make Believe Island" highlighted by Tenor Bill Perry.

◇ ◇ ◇

Drama

6 p. m. — Radio Guild (WCFL): "Elise," a story of love among Paris' artists . . . Sky Blazers (WBBM): the story of Jack Knight, the first pilot to fly the mail through night storms.

6:30 p. m.—Listeners Playhouse (WMAQ): "The Twenty-First Girl," Paul Bunyan and his romances. . . Human Adventure (WBBM): "Birth of a Baby," recent medical advance in obstetrics.

◇ ◇ ◇

Variety

7 p. m.—Barn Dance (WLS): Alec Tempeton returns as a guestar with the Dinning Sisters.

◇ ◇ ◇

Discussion

9 p. m. — People's Platform (WBBM): from Milwaukee and the National Education assn. convention a discussion on proposed compulsory military training, with E. G. Doudna, member of the board of normal regents, participating.