

Wilkomirski, Symphony V to Broadcast

Michael Wilkomirski, violinist who was soloist with the Madison Civic Symphony orchestra April 30, will appear with Jerzy Bojanowski's Symphony orchestra in broadcasts tonight from Chicago's Grant Park.

The program will be aired at 7:30 by WIBA, at 8 by WIND, and at 8:30 by WGN and WENR. The music will include "Danza," Carpenter; "Rumanian Rhapsody," Enesco; "Nocturne," Chopin, and "Polonaise in D Major," Wieniawski.

Other attractions tonight:

Music

6 p. m.—Concert Hour (WIBA, WMAQ): Lucille Manners, others; six George M. Cohan tunes, plus "On Wings of Song," "Beloved, It Is Morn," "Tales from the Vienna Woods," "Deep in My Heart."

7 p. m.—Waltz Time (WIBA, WMAQ): "The Nearness of You," "Make Believe Island," "Let the Rest of the World Go By."

10:30 p. m.—Music You Want (WENR): John McCormack, Yehudi Menuhin, Chicago Symphony orchestra in recordings of Sarasate, Dvorak, others.

◇ ◇ ◇

Drama

6 p. m. — Wings Over America (WGN): new Fifth Column expose with Elissa Landi and Phillips Holmes.

6:30 p. m. — Death Valley Days (WLS): "The Fire Queen," owner of dance hall who is idolized by firefighters.

◇ ◇ ◇

Sports

8 p. m.—Roundy (WIBA).

◇ ◇ ◇

Quiz

8:30 p. m. — Choose Up Sides (WBBM): sports quiz at new time.

◇ ◇ ◇

Variety

7 p. m.—Show Boat (WENR): Dick Todd sings "Just One More Chance." "Johnny Presents (WBBM): Max Marcin's "Murder for Malice," plus "You're Lonely and I'm Lonely," "Linger Awhile," "Where Do I Go from You?"

8 p. m.—Don Ameche (WMAQ): in "French Leave," story of husband who tries to run away; Pat Friday sings.

9:30 p. m.—Byrd Salute (WIBA): Ken Carpenter, others greet expedition.

◇ ◇ ◇

Miscellaneous

6 p. m.—Man About Hollywood (WBBM): George McCall returns, interviewing Jim Davies, "reducer;" Marie Ambers, singing cigaret girl; Jim Daugherty, sidewalk-footprint expert; Helen Parrish, actress; others.