

Galaxy Of Stars Scheduled To Be With Crosby Thursday

Virginia Bruce, Lynn Overman And Eddie Albert
To Warble; Henry Aldrich Opens Hot Dog Stand

Bing Crosby will have his hands full of potential opera stars on the Music hall, Thursday when Virginia Bruce, Lynn Overman, and Eddie Albert of the films take a cue from Bing's protege Carol MacFarlane, and warble a song for the customers. The Music Maids and John Scott Trotters orchestra will back up the musical section with some special arrangements of their own over WEAf at the new time of 8 p. m.

Irrepressible Henry Aldrich will turn to big business and open a roadside stand, with hot dogs and soda pop, during "The Aldrich Family" broadcast over WEAf Thursday at 7:30 p. m.

Henry and his rather dopey pal, Homer, have a change to purchase a second-hand second-hand car for the mere sum of $50. Homer possesses $18 so they merely have to raise the remaining $32, which looms as big as the national debt in Henry's eyes.

A Northwest Mountie's search on snow shoes thru 1,000 miles of Arctic waste for a dangerous killer will be described on the Strange As It Seems program. Thursday at 7:30 p. m. over WABC. Captain William Campbell, the mountie, will be a guest on the program to tell about the solo trek.

Baby Snooks (Fanny Brice) will deliver an essay entitled "The Ruminating Horned Quadruped With Long Hair" or "The Goat," as her special contribution to Good News of 1940. Thursday on WEAf at 7 p. m. Mary Martin and Dick Powell will be featured in a duet arrangement of "Mi Cabellero."

The weather man comes in for a bit of a tribute on Ask-It Basket, Thursday, when genial Jim McWilliams will grill his quiz contestants on various aspects of "Good Old Summer Time" at 7 p. m. on WABC.

As usual, the "Anything Can Happen" basket will call for new zany activities in the field of mimicry.
