

Kirsten Flagstad Headlines "We, The People" Broadcast

Connie Boswell Guests For Third Successive Week
On Musical Americana; Negro Program
Scheduled

Kirsten Flagstad, Metropolitan Opera diva, and her accompanist Edwin McArthur; Ray Douglas, a seafaring man who tore up a railroad; Mrs. Mae Lowry, descendent of Betsy Ross, and Meyer Goldstein, taxi driver who got a baby for his fare, headline the list of guests whom Gabriel Heatter will present on "We, The People" over WABC, Tuesday, at 8:00 p. m.

Connie Boswell, radio's little lady of song, was signed for one guest star appearance on the Tuesday Musical Americana program but Kenneth Watt, emcee and director has persuaded her to remain for her third consecutive weekly appearance. She will sing two songs with Raymond Paige and his orchestra on the broadcast at 8:00 p. m. over WJZ. These selections are "I'll Never Smile Again" by Ruth Lowe, "Sleepy Time Down South".

Erskine Caldwell, author of Broadway's perennial "Tobacco Road," will add a new experience to his colorful career when he sits with John Kieran, Franklin P. Adams and Oscar Levant on the Information Please board of experts Tuesday, Clifton Fadiman's questions and the board's answers will be heard over WJZ at 7:30 p. m.

ble, will present a program of Negro music from the band stand on the American Commons at the New York World's Fair, Tuesday at 6:30 p. m. over WEAJ.

If Bernard Yoac, last heard from in Louisville, Ky., listens to the Court of Missing Heirs, Tuesday at 7:00 p. m. over WABC, he will find himself named as heir to the $21,000 estate of his aunt, Annie J. Stonenberg, killed by a hit and run driver in Berwick, Pa., in May 1939. Harry Furbish, if he listens to the same program, will hear himself named as heir to the $15,000 estate of his sister, Elizabeth S. Furbish, who left the principal and interest in trust for him. Furbish was last heard from in Rangeley, Me., in 1912. The $6,000 estate of William E. Marland, of Philadelphia, will also be heard on the show. His heir is his son, James, last heard from ten years ago in Newark, N. Y.
