

Low - Pressure Salesman To Be Guest On Saturday Hour

Al Pearce, In Role Of Elmer Blurt, To Swap Advice And Reminiscences With Old Timer On WEAf At 9 P. M.

The world's greatest low pressure salesman, Elmer Blurt, will swap advice and reminiscences with the old timer of Rosedale when Al Pearce makes a guest appearance on the Station E-Z-R-A program Saturday at 9 p. m., over WEAf.

How Emory Bronte navigated a plane from San Francisco to Hawaii thru 2,400 miles of mist and fog to prepare the way for a regular air service over the same route

Gold Cup Stakes Will Be Decided At Hollywood Park

By ROBERT MYERS

LOS ANGELES, July 27—(AP)

Turf enthusiasts by the thousands swept on suburban Hollywood Park today, chanting the names of Challedon, Kayak II, Can't Wait and other thoroughbred stars slated to go postward in the third running of the $50,000 added Hollywood Gold Cup.

By airplane, train and motor car, rich and poor, famous and humble, they came to watch the summer time racing classic of the west—which fell to the pounding strides of the mighty Seabiscuit in 1938, and to his Argentine stablemate, Kayak II, a year ago.

It was Kayak and the Maryland-bred Challedon against the field; the racing silks of Charles S. Howard once again pitted against the colors of W. L. Brann, but there was more than a chance will be told on Sky Blazers, Saturday, WABC, 7 p. m.

Col. Roscoe Turner, speed ace and master of ceremonies, will tell the story of that historic "first flight" made by Bronte and Ernie Smith in 1926. Despite inclement weather, Bronte successfully charted a course to the tiny group of islands, which were reached in 25 hours and two minutes.

Colonel Frank Knox, secretary of the navy; Atty. Gen. Robert H. Jackson, and Thurston Arnold, assistant attorney general, will speak over WEAf Saturday in a radio observance of the 50th anniversary of the Sherman anti-trust act, at 9:30 p. m. Saturday.

Rabbi Samuel Levison, of Temple Beth Emeth, Brooklyn, will be the guest speaker during the Message of Israel Saturday at 8 p. m. over WJZ. Rabbi Jonah B. Wise of Central synagogue will conduct the service and music will be supplied by the Central synagogue choir.