

Quarterback Will Attempt To Solve Mystery Of Theft

Ben Kish, Pittsburgh University Gridder, To Be Guest Star On Ellery Queen Program Sunday

Ben Kish, Pittsburgh university quarterback, will tackle "The Adventure of the Fatal Million" as armchair sleuth on the Ellery Queen show over WABC Sunday, at 6:30 p. m.

Also hoping to throw Ellery for a loss by naming the filcher of a million dollars in cash before he gets around to it will be Miss Doris Sharpe, former CBS receptionist. With Kish, she will follow the efforts of radio's ace detective, assisted by Nikki, Inspector Queen and Sergeant Velie, to solve the mystery of the pilfered fortune that destroys a life, a home and a career before a cent of it is spent.

Old favorites in the lists of American melodies will get the spotlight Sunday evening August 4 during the weekly broadcast of the Ford Summer Hour, heard over WABC from 8 to 9.

Topping the parade of well-known tunes will be James Newill's baritone singing of "The Lost Chord," and "Schubert's Serenade," as sung by Jessica Drag-onette, star of the program.

Ray Block, recently appointed to succeed Johnny Green as band-leader on the NBC-Red network "Johnny Presents" programs Tuesday nights, has just been signed to conduct background music for the sponsor's new series, "Crime Doctor" which will be heard over WABC Sunday at 7:30 p. m., starting August 4. "Crime Doctor" is a series of original stories by Max Mareni with listener participation for cash prizes.

David Guon's "Home on the Range" will be sung by Frank Munn, tenor, during the American Album of Familiar Music, Sunday, at 8:30 p. m. over WEAF.

Munn also will sing "Love Is the Sweetest Thing" by Noble, and with Elizabeth Lennox, contralto, Kreisler's "Stars in My Eyes" and "Give Me One Hour" by Fiml. Jean Dickenson, soprano, will sing Muler's "Staccato Polka" and with Frank Munn and the choir, Owen's "Sweet Leilani", featuring a violin solo by Bertrand Husch.

KENTON LEGION WILL ATTEND PARK PROGRAM

(Lima News Bureau)

KENTON, Aug. 3—A large delegation of members of the Kenton post of the American Legion will attend dedication rites for the American Legion Memorial park at Russells Point on Sunday, it was indicated at the regular meeting of the local post which was in charge of Harvey Ferner, first vice commander, in the absence of Herman J. Neu, commander. Lloyd B. Kelly of Kenton, commander of the Second district of the Legion, will be in charge of the program at Russells Point.

Lieut. Gov. Paul H. Herbert of Columbus will be the principal speaker. The Russells Point park is marked with a United States Army baby tank of the 1918 vintage. Harry Mattox, commander of the Indian Lake post, will have charge of the flag-raising part of the program which is scheduled for Sunday afternoon. A new 40-foot flag staff has been erected by the post.

There will be a parade at 2 p. m. under the direction of Harry Koons of Bellefontaine, the grand marshal. H. A. "Buck" Rider of Springfield will be present and will introduce distinguished guests.

At the meeting of the Kenton post it was unanimously voted by members to endorse the movement for the building of a municipal swimming pool. It was also announced at the meeting by Commander Kelly of the Second district that all commanders and adjutants of the various posts of the district will meet at Wapakoneta next Wednesday night when plans for
