

Marion Shockley Heads Cast Of Manhattan At Midnight

Two Best-Seller Records To Be Featured By Kay Kyser On Weekly "College Of Musical Knowledge"

"Second String," a rollicking comedy about Broadway, newspapers, theatre and love, and starring two of radio's most charming actresses, Marion Shockley and Helene Dumas, will be broadcast as the third "Manhattan at Midnight" drama over WJZ Wednesday at 7:30 p. m.

There'll be a hot time in the old town when Bud Abbott and Lou Costello join the Wackyville Volunteer Fire Department during the "Hour of Smiles" broadcast over WEAJ Wednesday at 8 p. m.

"The Woodpecker Song" and "Playmates," two tunes which Kay Kyser has listed among the best-selling records, will be played by his orchestra as musical highlights of the "College of Musical Knowledge" Wednesday over WEAJ at 9 p. m. Vocals include "I Can't Resist You" and "Fools Rush In" by Ginny Simms and "The Nearness of You" and "I'm Nobody's Baby" by Harry Babbitt. Songs are interspersed between the usual quiz questions.

Frances Langford, the first girl to attempt what is considered a man's song, "Aint Necessarily So" will sing the Gershwin song Wednesday at 8 p. m. over WABC. Frances' second song will be "I'm Nobody's Baby." Kenny Baker's numbers will be "Wandering Minstrel, I," and "The Nearness of You." David Broekman's orchestra will play "España Cani," by Lecuena.

Mr. Meek Goes To the Circus is the title of the next adventure encountered by Mortimer Meek in Meet Mr. Meek, heard Wednesday at 6:30 p. m., over WABC, with Frank Readick in the title role. Mortimer, called upon to take a client's sissy son, "Virgil, to the circus, succeeds in making a real boy out of Virgil only after an encounter with a fat woman, a hon, and a couple of circus barkers. Doris Dudley and Adelaide Klein will co-star with Readick.

"The Case of the Crooked Wheel" is the "Mr. District Attorney" drama over WEAJ Wednesday at 8:30 p. m. Starred in the title role is Jay Jostyn supported by Vicki Vola and Len Doyle. Musical scene settings for the story, which is about crooked gambling, are by Peter Van Steeden and his orchestra.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 7

Eastern Standard Time—Subtract One

KENTON

KENTON, Aug. 7—Sunday afternoon, July 28, at the Church of Christ, Miss Jeanne Marjorie Roof, daughter of Atty. and Mrs. Roy Warren Roof, became the bride of Joseph Anton Gross, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gross of Cleveland. The single ring ceremony was performed by Rev. E. E. Naragon. Miss Albirda Ruth Haines, Miss Leona Naragon and John Roof were the attendants.

The bride was graduated from Kenton high school and attended Miami university. She was graduated from Ohio State university in 1939 and is a member of Sigma Kappa sorority. Gross was graduated from the school of business administration at Miami university. He is a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity, also of Phi Beta Kappa and Delta-Sigma Pi. He is at present connected with the Second Federal Savings and Loan bank at Cleveland, where the couple will reside.

Supt. and Mrs. L. E. McKinley have returned from a week's visit at Clarion, Pa., with McKinley's mother, Mrs. Kathryn C. McKinley, who recently celebrated her 86th birthday.

Miss Minnie F. Thompson and Miss Grace G. Thompson of Washington, D. C., are visiting at the home of Miss Minnie Norton, Miss Clara Norton and Mrs. Ida Norton Cooper. The Misses Thompson are returning to their home in Washington after a two-month trip thru the west and Alaska.

Mrs. Edith M. Corwin of near Kenton is announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of her granddaughter, Miss Helen M. Corwin, to Virgil Henning, son of Mrs. Harley Kemp of Bellefontaine. The marriage will take place in August.