

"Indian Love Call" To Be Featured By Dragonette

Ellery Queen Presents Mystery Story Program,
Small Town Editor Will Be Guest Detective

"The Indian Love Call," one of America's most loved selections, will be sung by Jessica Dragonette as the highlight of the Ford Summer Hour broadcast Sunday night from 8 to 9 on WABC.

James Newill, baritone star of the program, will offer the long popular "Lost Chord" by Sir Arthur Sullivan, with Mercury Chorus accompanying.

Ellery Queen probes three air-tight alibis to solve "The Adventure of the Mysterious Clock" which involves the theft of a precious ruby pendant in his detective mystery over WABC, Sunday at 6:30 p. m.

Andrew S. Telep, a small town newspaper editor from Mayfield, Pennsylvania, will turn guest detective and attempt to name the thief before Ellery Queen, Nikki, Inspector Queen and Sergeant Velie turn up enough evidence for the radio sleuth to say he has his man.

The problem every young man has faced . . . that of raising enough money to take his best girl to the dance . . . is given some very amusing twists in the next episode of "The Parker Family," to be heard over WJZ, Sunday at 8:15 p. m. Starring as Richard Parker is Leon Janney, handsome young stage, screen and radio actor. Cute, blonde Pat Ryan is cast as his girl friend, Elly, with Jay Jostyn, Linda Carlson and Mitzi Gould in important supporting roles. Chick Vincent directs.

A fictional criminal, George Rainoff, who has spent 22 years of his life in prison on various theft charges, is the central character in "Crime Doctor," original drama by Max Marcin over WABC, Sunday, at 7:30 p. m. Rainoff is interrogated by the "Crime Doctor," played by Ray Collins, and an examining committee on his application for release after serving the four-year minimum term imposed for his last crime. The prisoner's life is traced in a series of exciting episodes and the radio audience will be asked to explain in letters of one hundred words or less whether Rainoff should be released or returned to his cell. There will be cash prizes for the best letters. Ray Block and his orchestra supply background music with introductions by Johnny the Call Boy and Charles O'Connor.

"Mr. Nickel Man," a novelty number sung by Marvell Maxwell,

SUNDAY, AUGUST 11

Eastern Standard P. M.—Subtract One Hour for CST., 2 Hrs. for MT.—

Red Ingle and Elmo Tanner, will highlight the "Beat the Band" Sunday at 5:30 p. m. over WEA. Perry Como sings the new hit "Blueberry Hill," and the Ted Weems orchestra plays "Nobody's Baby" and "Get the Moon Out of Your Eyes."

James J. Braddock, the "cinderella man" who went off New Jersey's relief rolls for a last desperate chance in the ring and emerged with the world's heavy-weight championship, will tell the story behind that metamorphosis when he appears as Bill Stern's guest on the "Sports Newsreel of the Air," at 8:45 p. m. over WJZ.

Council Caucus Will Discuss Dumping Area

William Bigelow, city sanitary inspector, was instructed by the Lima Board of Health at its meeting Friday evening to attend a council caucus after its regular meeting Monday night at which plans will be discussed for future operation of a city dumping grounds.

Council will meet with A. Hubbard, operator of the Collett-st dumping grounds, regarding the proposed construction of a fence around the premises and general arrangements with the city for the remainder of the year.

The matter has been under discussion by council for the past several weeks.

Announcement was made at the meeting that the state board of health soon will begin an investigation of sanitary conditions of restaurants in the city, findings of which will be reported to the city board.