

Today's Radio Highlights

11:30 a. m., WMAL—Elizabeth Pitt, of the U. S. Forest Service takes a radio visit to the Superior National Forest of Minnesota during the National Farm and Home Hour.

6:30 p. m., WJSV—Their party for refugee children postponed because of technical difficulties. Parks Johnson and Wally Butterworth take their Vox Pop mike to the Aquabelles, Aquadonises and Aquastars. In other words, Eleanor Holm, Buster Crabbe and Billy Rose's Aquacade.

7:15. WRC—Gen. Hugh Johnson brings his colorful verbiage to the national hookups.

7:30. WJSV—Ka-choo. Ed Gusweiler, president of the Hay Fever Association of America, claims he has some effective challengers to the dominance of clover, golden rod and alfalfa over some poor citizens. So he says on Strange As It Seems. Ka-choo.

7:30. WOL—My, my, what a merry mix-up of folkery! Sabu, of the bronze Indian skin; Ted Lewis of top-hatted fame; Nan Wynn, band, songstress, and June Duprez, English film player making a Hollywood start, are in Chicago Tonight. Sabu and Miss Duprez offer scenes from their forthcoming "The Thief of Bagdad."

8. WRC—So Bing Crosby takes time out and listens to the K. M. H. have to have either a taste for the mountain humor of Bob Burns, subbing m. c., or else. On hand tonight are Fay Bainter, Ray Milland, Dorothy Lamour and Trumpeter Wingy Manone.

8:30. WMAL—Senator Burton K. Wheeler (Democrat), Montana, asks, as he has in the Senate these recent days: "Is Peacetime Conscription Consistent With the Democratic Form of Government?"

9:15. WJSV—Colby M. Chester, chairman of the board of General Foods and director of the National Association of Manufacturers, is interviewed by Edwin C. Hill on "Industry's Part in National Defense." This is the first of a regular Thursday evening series on the defense discussion.

9:30. WMAL—Jean Dickenson, soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Association, sings with the Toronto Promenade Symphony.

10. WOL—Maj. Louis Hershey speaks on Conscription.

10:15. WOL—Maj. Lemuel B. Schofield, assistant to the Attorney General in charge of immigration and naturalization service of the Justice Department, explains the Alien Registration Act of 1940, which goes into effect on the 27th.