

Hans Kindler Directs Final Sunset Concert of National Symphony

Clifford Goldsmith, shown here, author of "The Aldrich Family," is one successful playwright who studiously avoids contact with Broadway. He is taking no chances on dimming his knowledge and understanding of the small town scene through too frequent contact with the metropolis and sticks close to his home in rural Pennsylvania.

Hans Kindler will be guest conductor of the National Symphony orchestra in its final Sunset Symphony concert of the season from the Potomac Water Gate in Washington, D. C., tonight at 8:30 over WIBA.
