

"Marriage Club" Quiz To Be Inaugurated Saturday

Broadcasts Will Be Carried From Various Cities Thruout Nation; Old Song Will Be Aired

The Marriage Club, Haven MacQuarrie's new kind of audience-participation show, mingling serious and humorous discussions of the conjugal relationship, will make its bow over WABC network on Saturday at 7 p. m.

MacQuarrie will conduct his Marriage Club broadcasts from various of the large cities thruout the country during the coming year. Local couples of all ages will compete for more than one hundred dollars in cash prizes on each program and the leading CBS station announcer of the community will do a "guest turn" for an evening. From time to time, it is expected that city officials and their wives, as well as parents of famous people, will appear.

"La Navidad de Los Ninos", a song laden with nostalgic memories of childhood Christmases in Spain, will be given its first public performance during the "Melody in the Night" broadcast over WJZ Saturday at 9:30.

Inspired by recollections of visitations from the three wise kings (Spanish equivalent for Santa Claus), the song was composed by Victor Granados, son of the distinguished Spanish composer, and set to words by Tana, Spanish-born singing find.

Tana will sing the number during her appearance on the weekly No-Words-All-Music program, directed by Paul Laval. A program of old favorites dressed in modern settings, including "Pagan Love Song," "O Susanna," "Shadrack" and "The Very Thought of You," will be offered by Laval and the orchestra.

As a tribute to school teachers and a reminder that school days once more are with us, Pat Barrett, on his Uncle Ezra broadcast Saturday, at 9 p. m. over WEAJ, will present a watch to Hattie Miller, school marm from down Rosedale way. The radio character, Hattie Miller, is patterned after an actual Hattie Miller who taught Barrett in second grade.
