

Raymond Massey to Tell of University of Chicago's Progress at 6:30 Tonight

FRAN CARLON

ELLIOTT LEWIS

Raymond Massey, best known for his characterization of Abraham Lincoln, will appear as the "voice" of America's universities when the Human Adventure traces the University of Chicago's half-century of progress for WBBM listeners at 6:30 tonight.

The broadcast will emphasize universities' pioneering, especially the contributions of science to human welfare.

Other features tonight:

Drama

6 p. m.—Knickerbocker Playhouse (WMAQ): Elliott Lewis and Fran Carlon in "A Hero Comes Home," crime drama with a happy ending.

7:35 p. m.—Radio Guild (WIBA, WMAQ): "Height of Fashion," which tells why a cab driver quit rooting for the Dodgers to study women's hats.

Popular Music

7 p. m.—Hit Parade (WBBM): with Marie Greene, swing singer of arias.

Variety

7 p. m.—National Barn Dance (WLS): Elsie Mae Gordon, Pat Buttram, others in seventh anniversary of network debut.

8 p. m.—Uncle Extra (WIBA, WMAQ): women's day in Rose-dale.

9 p. m.—County Salute (WLS): from Hartford, Wis.

Réligion

9:30 p. m.—Rosh Hashonah (WIBA, WMAQ): Rabbis David de Sola Pool, orthodox leader; Max Arzt, conservative, and Samuel Schulman, reformed.