

Fred Allen Returns To Air Waves With Star Theatre

Comedian Introduces New Coloratura Soprano; Kyser Revives Old Hits; Loretta Young On Cavalcade

Christina Carroll, coloratura soprano who made her network debut on the Major Bowes Amateur Hour last week will be given the second big break of her career when Fred Allen presents her on the Star Theatre Wednesday at 9:00 p. m. over WABC. It will be Fred's first show over a new network and Christina's first appearance as a paid professional singer. Kenny Baker will sing "Wandering Minstrel Boy," from "The Mikado," and "Blueberry Hill." The Mighty Allen Art Players with Portland Hoffa, will do a dramatic (?) opus.

Three hits of the past which are coming back into prominence again will be featured by Kay Kyser and his orchestra on their "College of Musical Knowledge" program over WEAJ Wednesday at 10 p. m. They are "Maybe," "Ma, He's Making Eyes At Me" and "Nobody's Baby." In between musical numbers there will be the usual quiz questions aimed at contestants from the studio audience.

Loretta Young, of cinematic fame, will be starred as Eleanor, mother of Virginia Dare, first white child born in the new world, in Paul Green's pageant "The Lost Colony" which is to be the premiere program of Cavalcade of America's sixth season over WEAJ Wednesday at 7:30 p. m.

One of the most vicious rackets in the country, adulteration of food, which affects every household, is exposed by "Mr. District Attorney" on his program over WEAJ Wednesday at 9:30 p. m. in "The Case of the Singing Butcher." The "singing" that the butcher does helps clear up the monkey business in crooked meat markets which dupe the buyers.

Gale Page and Jim Ameche will co-star on the Fall series of Hollywood Playhouse dramas to be heard each Wednesday over WEAJ at 8:00 p. m. beginning Oct. 2.

Whitey Ford, Duke of Paducah and master of ceremonies of the Plantation Party, will discourse on baseball during the broadcast of Wednesday, over WEAJ at 8:30 p. m.

A newspaper drama by Frank

Dolan, once a crack Manhattan reporter, will be presented on "Manhattan at Midnight" with Barbara Terrill starred on Wednesday at 8:30 p. m. over WJZ.

One three-way tie and one two-way tie in last week's competition will bring five youngsters back for the second successive "Quiz Kids" program Wednesday, at 8:00 p. m., over WJZ.

One of the big features Eddie Cantor plans for his opening "Time to Smile" show on WEAJ Wednesday, Oct. 2. is the introduction on the air for the first time of the song, "Down Argentine Way," from the Don Ameche picture of the same title. Cantor, incidentally, goes to Washington this week where he'll deliver to President Roosevelt a check for $1,400,000, proceeds of the benefit birthday balls for the fight against infantile paralysis.
