

Waring Salutes Minnesota In First '40 "College Smoker"

"College Smoker Night" will return to the air on Friday at 7 p. m. over WEAJ when Fred Waring and his Pennsylvanians will introduce the new fight song for the University of Minnesota.

The song, written by Fred and Tom Waring and Pat Ballard the Golden Gophers, their football team, with a salute to the annual game between Nebraska and Minnesota which will be played in Minneapolis the next day.

Incidentally, the song Waring composed for Nebraska in last year's College Smoker series, will be played by the opposing team during the game's festivities, while the Minnesota band is introducing their new fight song.

Elmer Blurt will revive a night club when the two piano team of Bill Jordan and Russ Kent, stars of Hollywood's swank nightclub, "Bar of Music" guest on the Al Pearce program, Friday at 7:30 p. m. over WABC. Frances Hill, Nashville's official hostess from Station WLAC, will be Pearce's pro-amateur singing guest, and by popular request the Merry Macs will sing "Three Trees." Artie Auerback, Arthur Q. Bryan and the rest of the Al Pearce gang will be on hand to make the nightclub venture a success.

Keeping abreast of the World Series interest, Bob Ripley today signed up a man who set a baseball record that has never been tied or broken in the 36 years since he made it. He's C. L. Dow, Olympia, Washington, who went to bat nine times in a game in 1906—and hit nine home runs! Dow and his wife will be on the program Friday at 10 p. m. He'll tell about five other baseball records he set and she'll give the exciting story of how those nine homers affected their lives together.

The Kate Smith Hour will honor the memory of Knute Rockne, great football coach, by presenting a preview of the motion picture, "Knute Rockne—All American" from the campus of Notre Dame University, South Bend, Ind. over WABC Friday at 8 p. m.

With Pat O'Brien, as Knute Rockne; Gale Page, as the football mentor's wife; Ronald Reagan, Donald Crisp and others in their screen roles, the entire Kate Smith program will be broadcast from Notre Dame.

The Frank Black Friday night concert programs, heard over WEAJ at 8 p. m., will once more offer football dope for dialers. Grantland Rice has been signed to return to the series for his eighth consecutive season beginning with the broadcast of Oct. 4. On that date Black and his orchestra will highlight the musical portion of the airing with German's "Merrymakers Dance." Lucille Manners is soloist.

Bill Stern, sports expert, heads south on Saturday to cover the important early season grid clash between Duke and Tennessee. The game will be broadcast over WJZ from 3:15 to 6 p. m. from Durham, N. C.

Arch Oboler, iconoclastic radio dramatist will return to the air on Friday with a new group of weekly plays to be heard on WLW.

As the opening broadcast under his first commercial contract, the young author-producer plans to present Nazimova, internationally-known stage and screen star in "This Lonely Heart," a story of the strange love affair between Tschakowsky and Madame von Meek.
