

Don Ameche To Be On Kate Smith Show Friday Evening

Actor Will Do A Radio Version Of His New Forthcoming Motion Picture, "Down Argentine Way" At 8 P. M.

The Kate Smith Hour, back in New York after a visit with the Notre Dame Irish in South Bend, Ind., will present Don Ameche in a radio version of his forthcoming motion picture, "Down Argentine Way," over WABC Friday, 8 p. m.

Kidnaper, hold-up man, vicious killer — yet unknown almost to the end of his lifetime of criminal terror. That's the summing up of the beanpole bandit, whose career will be dramatized in the opening broadcast of the "Gang Busters" series over WJZ Friday at 9 p. m.

Arch Oboler is making a special trip to New York from Hollywood next week in order to direct Raymond Massey in "This Precious Freedom," the young author-producer's second "Everyman's Theatre" drama which will be heard over WEAJ Friday at 9:30 p. m.

Hannah Clapp, pioneer school teacher who opened the first school in Nevada in 1859, will be honored by the Old Ranger in his true story of "Death Valley Days" on Friday at 8:30 p. m., over WJZ.

Miss Clapp, clad in men's overalls, worked her way to California from New York by doing odd jobs. When she learned there were no schools between Salt Lake City and the Sierras she settled in the Nevada capital and opened the Sierra Seminary for boys and girls.

Twelve solid years on the air and the beginning of his 12th year of commercial broadcasting will be the record to be celebrated by Al Pearce when he and his Gang broadcast their weekly fun-fest over WABC Friday from 7:30 to 8 p. m.

Gov. Leverett Saltonstall of Massachusetts will welcome Bob Ripley and his gang on their Boston broadcast, Friday at 10 p. m., on WABC. The Dartmouth Glee club also will be featured in the program singing "I Am An American" and one of their college songs. These are added features to an outstanding program that will present a new and startling dramatization about Columbus plus several living "Believe It Or Nots."

"Carissima," by Arthur A. Penn, will be Lucille Manners' featured solo during the Concert Hour, Friday at 8:00 p. m., over WEAJ. Ross Graham, baritone, will offer Melcalf's "Absent," and Dr. Frank Black will conduct the orchestra in Pollock's "Bolero."

Frank Munn's tenor solos for Waltz Time, Friday at 9:00 p. m., over WEAJ will be "Two Dreams Met" and "In the Cool of the Evening."

NEW KNOXVILLE

NEW KNOXVILLE, Oct. 11 — Mr. and Mrs. Carl Werheim spent the past week traveling in the eastern states.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gruchmeyer announce the birth of a girl Monday, Sept. 30th.

Rev. and Mrs. Ballinger, Mrs. Elmer Katterheinrich, Mrs. Marianne Schultz, Mrs. Elmer Kruse, Mrs. Ferd Meekstroth, Mrs. Wesley Aufderhaar, Mrs. Hiram Katterheinrich, Mrs. George Rodeheffer and Mrs. N. P. Katterheinrich, Columbus, on Tuesday afternoon.

William Meyers of west of New Knoxville is seriously ill at his home following an operation he underwent several weeks ago at Miami Valley hospital, Dayton.

Howard Katterheinrich of Bowling Green university spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Katterheinrich.

The Methodist Epworth league met Tuesday evening in the basement of the church.

Miss Elaine Ballinger, assistant editor of Ohio Council of Churches and Miss Althea Ballinger, sophomore student of Ohio State university, spent Friday night with their parents, Rev. and Mrs. T. A. Ballinger.