

The Post Radio Time Table

1:50 p. m. WMAL—Mrs. Henry W. Roberts, jr., president general of the Daughters of the American Revolution, observes the society's Golden Jubilee.

2, WMAL—Dr. Walter Damrosch leads the N. B. C. Symphony in a preview of this year's Music Appreciation Hours.

7:30. WJSV—Al Pearce, Elmer Blurt, celebrates 12 years on the air on the day after his twelfth wedding anniversary.

7:30, WRC—Just to remind you Alec Templeton is back. This time he improvises on four tunes selected by the studio audience.

8. WMAL—Wendell L. Willkie speaks at a Republican rally in Braves Field, Boston, Mass.

8. WJSV—Don Ameche and Charlotte Greenwood play "Down Argentine Way" for Kate Smith. Henny Youngman joins Willie Howard for the comic spots.

8:30. WRC—Henry A. Wallace immediately follows Republican Willkie on another station with a Democratic National Committee talk: "Pan-American and National Security."

8:30, WOL—Alfred Wallenstein's Sinfonietta plays Schubert's Symphony No. 2 as well as Toch's "Pinocchio."

9. WMAL—The Case of the Beanpole Bandit is the first of the new Gang Busters series.

9:30. WRC—Arch Oboler has written for Raymond Massey, "an exciting melodrama about the days we live in," to use the author's own description. "This Previous Freedom" is its title.

9:30. WOL—Dolly Stark, veteran National League baseball umpire who retired this season because of ill health, treads the air boards with Betty Furness in a dramalet, "Behind Home Plate."

10. WJSV—Gov. Leverett Saltonstall and the Glee Club of Dartmouth College join Bob Ripley for his Believe It or Not airing from Boston.

11:15. WMAL—"We Have Our Faith" say an actor, a forest ranger, a farmer, an industrial worker and a white collar man during the special WMCA airing celebrating the 119th anniversary of the birth of Sir George Williams, who founded the organization in London 96 years ago.