Bridgeport couples will hold forth on such problems as how often a man should shave; whether a wife should tell her husband that her blonde hair is really peroxide blonde; and what a man should do when his wife insists that the dog sleep at the feet of the bed, preventing him from stretching full length.

Hans Wilhelm Steinberg, former conductor of the Frankfurt and Prago Opera Cos., who assisted Arturo Toscanini during the formation of the Symphony Orchestra, has been chosen to conduct the NBC Symphony in its first concert of the 1940-41 season, on Saturday at 10 p. m., over WJZ.

The U. S. Army Air Corps will take a half holiday from serious national defense preparations on Thursday, Oct. 10, to sign up the first real wooden soldier in history.

At a gala field day officially dedicated to himself, Charles McCarthy, the world's most celebrated dummy, will don the uniform of the air corps as Hollywood's first volunteer in the Air Corps' current drive to boost its enlisted strength to 95,000.

With martial music filling the air, with 4,000 air corps officers and men standing at attention on the March Field parade ground, and with high ranking officers looking on, Charlie will be presented with a warrant as master sergeant in the Air Corps by Brig. Gen. Rush B. Lincoln, base commander.
