

The Post Radio Time Table

9:15 a. m., WJSV—Alan Lomax rounded up a group of mountain music specialists on a trip around Virginia and this morning they join him in a broadcast from the WJSV studios for the American School of the Air.

2 p. m., WMAL—The New York Herald Tribune Forum on Current Problems convenes at the Waldorf-Astoria. Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt. Post Columnist Walter Lippmann and Col. William Donovan speak on "The State of American Preparedness."

4:15, WMAL—The Herald Tribune Forum resumes with Judge Robert P. Patterson Under-Secretary of War, and Col. Frank Knox, Secretary of the Navy, on "Progress of American Rearmament" and Dr. Alan Valentine, president of the University of Rochester on "Mobilizing the Mind."

8:15, WOL—Roger W. Babson, the economist whose writings appear in The Post and candidate for the Presidency of the New Prohibition party, makes a campaign address.

8:30, WOL—Senator Edward R. Burke (Democrat), of Nebraska, and former Representative Samuel B. Pettengill, of Indiana, speak under the National Committee to Uphold Constitutional Government on "No Third Term for Any President."

8:30, WMAL—Pulitzer prize winning reporter and private wit, Herbert Bayard Swope has finally been inveigled into tussle with the Information Please boys.

9, WJSV—Patricia Prochnik, a favorite of all Washington, tells of her determination to be a band songstress

9:35, WMAL—"Science and Industry Mobilize" titles the Herald Tribune Forum night session with talks by Winthrop Rockefeller, D. William Tomlinson, William L. Batt and Karl Darrow.

10:30, WRC—Wendell L. Willkie continues his series of question-answer broadcasts, speaking from his special train.