Other problems to be placed before the marital forum include the following: How long a wife or husband should be permitted to sulk; how a wife can teach her husband to stop bringing unexpected guests for dinner; and how a sleepy husband can cure his frightened wife of the habit of waking him up at night because she thinks every trilling noise means burglars in the house.

"Uncle Ezra" has received so many requests for a repeat broadcast on the reading of "Injun' Summer" based on the cartoon by John T. McCutcheon, that he will do it again on the Uncle Ezra program, Saturday at 10:00 p. m., over WEAF. Fran Allison, who is "Aunt Fanny Pettigill," will tell of her blighted love and sing a comedy number, "There Was I Waiting at the Church Door." "Sons of the Pioneers" will sing and play their cowboy ballads.

"You're in the Army Now," a weekly dramatic series dealing with life in the newly drafted forces, and aimed at the interest of American families whose sons soon are to be undergoing military training, will be presented over WJZ from 6:30 to 7:00 p. m., beginning Saturday.

Guest false faces will be worn by entertainers at the National Barn Dance broadcast on Saturday when the program celebrates Halloween at 9:00 p. m. over WEAF Network.

The Dining Sisters will sing the appropriate "Ding Dong, the Witch Is Dead," and the Prairie Ramblers will be featured in "Sipping Cider Through a Straw." Other program items include "Indian Love Call," by banjoist Eddie Peabody, "Mysterious Mose" by the Hoosier Hot Shots and "Jack O'Lantern Moon" by tenor Henry Burr.
