

Cantor Conga Lesson Will Feature Wednesday Program

Fred Allen To Present Sky-Writer As "Pers You Didn't Expect To Meet;" Robinson To Do Drama

Eddie Cantor will take that conga lesson, postponed from last week when politics usurped his spot on the air at 9 p. m. Wednesday over WEA. The funster will trip the light fantastic in Madame La Zonga's terpsichorean parlors with Dinah Shore, Mr. Guffy, Harry von Zell and Bobby Sherwood with bandboys dancing attendance.

Especially testy, because of having to hold a scowl a week longer than he had expected before making his entry on Eddie's show, the cantankerous Guffy has hatched a new set of insults primed to pin back the ears of the Madame's six Latin daughters and all within earshot.

Undismayed by Mr. Guffy, Dinah Shore will unleash her own torrid rendition of "Down Argentine Way," accompanied by Edgar Fairchild's Glee club.

Eddie will vocalize in the individual Cantor manner on "That's Your Umbrella When It's Raining," while Bobby Sherwood's orchestra will play a special arrangement of "Blueberry Hill."

Fred Allen scheduled a sky-writer on his Star Theatre program Oct. 23, and true to tradition, the skywriter's appearance went up in smoke.

He didn't go on the show because FDR had taken over the network so on Wednesday, Andy Stinis, who was slated to talk about his chirography in the sky will make the appearance he was supposed to have made Oct. 23.

On that date, at 9:00 p. m. over WABC, Stinis will be the person you don't expect to meet. Al Goodman's orchestra will play "I've Got You Under My Skin" and "The Breeze and I." The Hugh Martin chorus will sing "You Can't Brush Me Off." Kenny Baker's numbers are "Star Dust" and "Ferry Boat Serenade."

"It's a Free Country," timely story as it dramatically stresses the need for Americans to exercise their franchise on election day, will be Edward G. Robinson's next "Big Town" broadcast over WABC at 8 p. m. Wednesday. Maxwell Shane and Paul Franklin, veteran writers for the Rinso program, authored the script, which will be produced under the direction of Crane Wilbur. Ona Munson will be heard opposite Robinson. Its broadcast date is just prior to the presidential election.

Agatha Meek finally persuades Mr. Meek to redecorate on the "Meet Mr. Meek" program Wednesday, 7:30 p. m. over WABC. Drexel Plush, decorator, is summoned to the Meek household when he estimates the cost of decorating to be about $500. Meek agrees. While Plush is moving out the old furniture, Meek notices he's extra careful with Meek's favorite chair. Meek investigates and discovers his favorite chair is a valuable antique so he confronts Plush with his knowledge and the outcome of the business transaction which doesn't cost Meek a cent, proves hilariously funny. Frank Readick plays the title role, Mr. Meek, supported by Adelaide Klein as "Agatha," Doris Dudley as "Peggy" and Jack Smart as "Louie."
