

Tonight; Frank en on WIBA

Pres. Roosevelt will be heard again tonight. The chief executive will broadcast from Boston at 9 p. m. through WIBA and WMAQ and at 9:15 through WBBM and WGN.

Other election broadcasts tonight:

8 p. m.—Sen. Robert A. Taft (WIBA): for Willkie.

8:45 p. m.—Willkie Democrats (WIBA).

◇ ◇ ◇

Mrs. Glenn Frank, widow of the former University of Wisconsin president and Republican candidate for the United States senatorial nomination in the September primary, will speak in behalf of the candidacy of Fred H. Clausen, GOP senatorial candidate, tonight at 7 through WIBA.

◇ ◇ ◇

Outstanding, non-political programs for tonight and Thursday-time follow, classified:

Drama

6:30 p. m.—Mr. Meek (WBBM): a house is redecorated . . . Cavalcade (WMAQ): "The Red Death," the fight of Dr. Joseph Goldberger against pellagra.

7 p. m.—Hollywood Playhouse (WMAQ): Gale Page and Jime Ameche in "Theodora Goes Wild."

7:30 p. m.—Dr. Christian (WBBM): a modern Paul Revere warns the valley of sickness . . .

Manhattan at Midnight (WLS): the all-American hero is a flop in business . . . Wisconsin—Her Men and Women (WIBA): Mathilda Anneka, champion of women's rights, has her story told.

8:30 p. m.—Mr. D. A. (WMAQ): "The Case of the Murdered Author."

◇ ◇ ◇

Quiz

7 p. m.—Quiz Kids (WLS): Gloria Jean of the films is guest.

◇ ◇ ◇

Variety

7:30 p. m.—Plantation Party (WMAQ): it's Halloween.

8 p. m.—Eddie Cantor (WMAQ) Mr. Guffy returns grumbling . . .

Fred Allen (WBBM): skywriting.

◇ ◇ ◇

Musical

7 p. m.—Melody Time (WGN): the story of "O Promise Me."

◇ ◇ ◇

Thursdaytime

11:30 a. m.—National Farm and Home Hour (WIBA, WMAQ): the Daughters of the American Revolution are honored.

3:15 p. m.—Pres. Roosevelt (WCFL): dedicates a Washington Cancer Research center. Address non-political.