

Ida Lupino Stars In Radio Drama With Basil Rathbone

Movie Luminaries To Offer Version Of "Wuthering Heights" On DeMille Program; Richard Crooks Returns To Wallenstein Concert

Ida Lupino, a young lady who is definitely on the upswing in the movies, will get an extraordinary radio break when she plays Cathy in "Wuthering Heights" with Basil Rathbone as Heathcliff on Monday in the Radio theatre. This is the week Cecil B. DeMille returns to Hollywood to take over the reins of the full-hour dramatic show that's broadcast over WABC at 9:00 p. m.

Dagwood returns from a business trip and hands in a rather baffling expense account which reads, "funeral flowers, mistletoe, etc.," all expenses incurred when Dagwood clinches a deal on the Blonde program Monday, 7:30 p. m. over WABC. The flashback technique is employed when Dagwood explains how he clinches the deals and the methods he employed which necessitated his making such incongruous purchases. Arthur Lake and Penny Singleton star in the series.

Richard Crooks, Metropolitan Opera tenor, will broadcast Monday, at 8:30 p. m. over WEAf.

Crooks will sing "Le Reve" from Massenet's "Mannon," "Mattinata" from Leoncavallo's "I Pagliacci," "Ah, Love, But a Day," by Protheroe and "Yours Is My Heart Alone" by Lehar.

"Ah, Moon of My Delight," from Lehmann's song cycle, "In a Persian Garden," will be James Melton's tenor solo during the Telephone Hour, Monday, at 8 p. m. over WEAf.

Inhabitants (if any) of Alpha Centauri, the nearest fixed star, will learn the results of the Roosevelt-Landon (CQ) election for the
