

The Post Radio Time Table

8:30 a. m., WJSV, WRC and WMAL—The Capital's official home coming celebration to President Roosevelt is acknowledged by the President with a brief talk from his car at Union Station Plaza after leaving the train. Besides the cheers of thousands, there will be three service bands' music and brief welcomes from District officials on this half-hour network salute from the voteless Washington.

7:15 p. m., WOL—Defense Housing Coordinator C. F. Palmer speaks for the Advisory Defense Commission.

7:15, WJSV—Or, if you've had enough of political talk; how about a song from Lois January and Lanny Ross, who salutes Miss January's native State of Texas with "The Eyes of Texas Are Upon You."

8, WJSV—Here's one for the vaudeville fans: Ed East's Ask-It-Basket emphasizes the slang of the variety halls.

9, WRC—Basso profundo Ezio Pinza joins bazooka-booster Bob Burns with Virginia Bruce, Nat Pendleton and Dorothy Lamour also in the house.

9:30, WOL—Ed Mayehoff's mimicry in the Algonquin Supper Club is also a new favorite on the airlines.

10, WRC—Tim and Irene help Rudy Vallee portray the life and loves of Wild Bill Hickok.

10:30, WRC—As a feature of the twentieth anniversary of the beginning of regular daily radio programs, Dr. Frank Conrad, the man who first used the word "broadcast" in connection with radio, joined Raymond Paige, Tommy Riggs and his Betty Lou on Musical Americana.

10:45, WMAB—The arrival in this country of Ignace Jan Paderewski is observed in a concert by the NBC Concert Orchestra, H. Leopold Spitalny, conductor and Earl Wild, pianist.

10:45, WOL—Igor Stravinsky conducts the Chicago Symphony Orchestra in a program of his own music: Concerto for Piano and Wind Orchestra, "Petrouchka" Suite and his latest symphony dedicated to the Chicago Symphony.
