

Uncle Ezra To Celebrate Stage Success Anniversary

National Barn Dance Features Headliners Of "Life With Father" At 9 P. M. Saturday; WJZ Presents American Ballet

The first anniversary of the stage success. "Life with Father", will be celebrated on Saturday, when six stars from three of the companies now being seen in the show are heard on the National Barn Dance at 9 p. m., over WEAJ.

The headliners, who will speak from the respective cities in which they are playing, are Lillian Gish and Percy Warham, from Chicago; Dorothy Stickney and Howard Lindsay, from New York, and Dorothy Gish and Louis Calhern, who are playing in Boston.

"Billy the Kid," a ballet by the American composer, Aaron Copland, will be presented for the first time as an orchestral suite when it is played by the symphony orchestra under the direction of Hans Wilhelm Steinberg, on Saturday, at 9:35 p. m. over WJZ.

Harry Salter's "Song of Your Life" program returns to the airwaves Saturday, at 9 p. m. over WJZ.

Featured on the program will be the story of Sergeant Edward Younger, who was taken from the ranks into a chapel in France and there told to designate one of four caskets to be known henceforth as the "Unknown Soldier." The sketch will tell about the dramatic music of the occasion which has impressed him.

Husbands and wives of Milwaukee will debate the best way to "burp" a baby on Saturday, when Haven MacQuarrie's traveling radio forum, Your Marriage club, concludes a two-weeks' visit in the Wisconsin city.
