Film Luminaries Featured In Screen Guild Offering

Loretta Young, Adolphe Menjou And Burgess
Meredith Have Roles In "A Star Is Born;"
Benny Announced As Dog Catcher

Loretta Young, lovely star of countless screen successes, and Burgess Meredith, of films, stage and radio, will co-star in "A Star is Born" with Adolphe Menjou on the "Screen Guild Theatre" over WABC, Sunday at 7:30 p. m.

Miss Young will play the role of Vicki Lester, hopeful young actress who comes to Hollywood from the middlewest to seek fame and fortune before the cameras, while Meredith returns to radio in the role of Norman Maine, happy-go-lucky Hollywood star whose romance with Vicki leads first to happiness, then heartbreak.

Jack Benny, hailed as the people's choice following his recent election to the post of dog catcher for the city of Beverly Hills, will undertake to broaden the scope of his political duties during WEAF broadcast Sunday at 7:00 p. m.
