

Back Seat Driving Problem Issue Before Marriage Club

St. Paul Men And Wives Will Discuss Matter During Broadcast Saturday; Harmon To Be Guest Of "Red" Grange

How should a man handle his wife when she insists on being a backseat driver? St. Paul's drivers and their wives will answer this question when Haven MacQuarrie's Your Marriage Club originates from that city for the second straight broadcast, Saturday at 8 p. m. over WABC.

Other posers for the marital jury will include such questions as: what a husband should do when his wife demands to leave in the middle of a movie because she has a premonition that the baby is crying at home; and what action should be taken by a weary husband who comes home from work to find his wife hurriedly opening a can of beans because her afternoon bridge party kept her late.

"Red" Grange and Tommy Harmon of Michigan, two most talked-about football figures of the decade, finally meet. This will be Saturday, over a Mutual network when Harmon is Grange's guest star on "Red's" broadcast. With Harmon, whose ambition is to be a football commentator, will be his mother and father. On Friday, over the same network, "Red" will have as his guest Dutch Clark, coach of the Cleveland Rams' professional team.

A slowaway four times will average of 20,000 miles at sea 16 year old Robert Stap of Long Island, who won a course at a nautical school when it was learned that his urge to be a sailor caused him to stow away, will be the top guest on Madeline Gray's "Bright Idea Club" over WEAF Saturday, at 10 30 a. m. Others on the program will be Beatrice Petrella and Rose Maio, 18 year old girls who edit a music newspaper and two Swedish youngsters, Eleanor Frieberg and Marie Rasmusen who will sing folk songs.

A real "Song of Your Life"—one that actually saved a life—will be presented on Harry Salter's program Saturday at 9 p. m. on WJZ. The guest in this case will be Father Hall, Episcopal minister who sang a hymn requested by a condemned man in Alabama state prison. The hangman had the noose ready when Father Hall finished the first verse of the song, but the condemned man requested the second verse. While Father Hall was singing it a knock came at the door and a guard rushed in with a pardon for the prisoner! Other guests will be Mabel Toole who wrote a sad song because her romance was shattered—and was reunited with her sweetheart because of the song; Agnes Davis, who won a song contest and married a rival contestant; Hazel Scott, pianist of "Cafe Society"; and Roy Post, author, an Mrs. Post.

A campaign to streamline the old Town Hall will be waged by the women of the mythical town of Rosedale when "Uncle Ezra" and the citizens of the town gather 'round their Station E-Z-R-A on Saturday night, 10 p. m. WEAF. Pat "Uncle Ezra" Barrett will lead the opposition against the tearing down of the town clock and other landmarks of the community. "Songs of the Pioneers" will do three original tunes, "He's Ridin' Home," "Cody of the Pony Express" and "Blue Prairie." The Pioneers trio will sing "Mandy Lee." Nora Cuneen as "Cecelia," Fran Allison as "Aunt Fanny," and Clarence Hartzell as "Uncle Bud" will be among the regulars in the cast. Bill Monroe and his Blue Grass Boys will be the featured guests
