

The Post Radio Time Table

12:15 p. m., WRC—Booth Tarkington's lively heroine, Alice Adams, is the latest to be serialized by that midday cereal opera, succeeding the "Wuthering Heights." Joan Tetzels plays the imaginative Alice, a role performed several weeks ago by Helen Hayes on her own program.

12:45, WOL—Mary Brian and Hugh O'Connell of "Off the Record" take time before the National opening to chat with Walter Compton.

3:15, WJSV—And here's another "Off the Record" player—Betty Furness, who talks of her film career with Elinor Lee.

8, WRC—James Melton and Francia White offer "Bess, You Is My Woman Now" from George Gershwin's "Porgy and Bess" as their Telephone Hour duet.

8:30, WRC—Chalk up 12 years for the Voice of Firestone. Tenor Richard Crooks has spent the past eight as leading star and Alfred Wallenstein has directed the orchestra since April, 1937.

9, WJSV—Many of the leads in the season's football film, "Knut Rockne—All American" revive their roles for Cecil B. DeMille's Radio Theater. Pat O'Brien has the title role and other players include Ronald Reagan, Donald Crisp and Gale Page.

9:30, WOL—New Program: Can You Top This? is its title and Mutual proudly boasts it employs three comedians: "Senator" Ed. Ford, Joe Laurie, jr., and Harry Hershfield. Listeners send in jokes and the three "experts" pull gags on the same subject.

10:45, WOL—Marjorie Lawrence sings Brunhilde, with Rose Bampton as Sieglinde, Rene Maison as Siegmund in the Chicago Civic Opera production of "Die Walkure." Emanuel List, Elsa Zebronska and Fred Destal are other principals.
