

Lord Lothian, British ambassador to the United States, will deliver an address tonight to the American Farm Bureau federation over WENR at 8 p. m. Lord Lothian will probably discuss the food situation in Britain.

Other outstanding programs for tonight and Thursdaytime follow, classified:

Drama

6:30 p. m.—Cavalcade (WMAQ): the life of Theodore Roosevelt and "The Big Stick." . . . Meet Mr. Meek (WBBM): psychology settles feud.

7 p. m.—Big Town (WBBM): a war tale, "After 18 Hours."

7:30 p. m. — Dr. Christian (WBBM): "A Message from Davcy."

8:30 p. m.—Mr. District Attorney (WMAQ): "The Case of the Talking Book," two murders.

9 p. m.—Story-Dramas (WENR): "I'm a Fool" by Sherwood Anderson, "losing the only girl."

9:30 p. m. — Doctors at Work (WENR-WIBA): "The Family's First Friend."

Quiz

7 p. m.—Quiz Kids (WLS): Paul T. Gilbert, child author, sees contestants go through the question mill.

Variety

7:30 p. m.—Plantation Party (WENR): the story of the only man in the world who can tell a won to shut up and get away with it. The dentist.

8 p. m.—Eddie Cantor (WMAQ): do your Christmas shopping early but not this way . . . Fred Allen (WBBM): the flea circus of the air with Prof. Heckler.

Sports

9:30 p. m.—Hall of Sports (WGN): boxing questions.

Music

8:30 p. m.—Pageant of Melody (WGN): Opera Stars Frederick Jagel and Dusolina Giannini are guests.

Discussion

9:15 p. m.—Association of Manufacturers (WBBM): H. W. Prentis, Jr., president of the NAM, on the eve of the national convention.

Thursdaytime

10:30 a. m.—National Association of Manufacturers (WIBA): J. Edgar Hoover of the FBI on "Sabotage and the Fifth Column."

11:30 a. m.—Farm and Home Hour (WIBA, WMA): land use problems in Kansas.