

...s to Portray ... Hero 30 Tonight

The story of Thomas Cooper who warded off the threat to freedom of speech in the early days of the United States will be presented tonight during a drama, "As a Man Thinketh," on Cavalcade of America at 6:30 p. m. over WMAQ. Claude Rains, Hollywood character actor, will play Cooper, who began his career as an organizer of the French Revolution and continued its fight for human rights in his attack on the John Adams administration in the press.

Other outstanding programs for tonight follow, classified:

Drama

6:30 p. m.—Mr. Meeks (WBBM): he beats the town's wives with his cake.

7 p. m.—Big Town (WBBM): another racket is exposed.

7:15 p. m.—How Did You Meet (WMAQ): famous friends come together.

7:30 p. m.—Manhattan at Midnight (WLS)...Dr. Christian (WBBM): "Spoil the Child."

8:30 p. m.—Mr. District Attorney (WMAQ): "The Mystery of the Locked Room," a millionaire is shot.

9 p. m.—Story-Dramas (WENR): Robert Louis Stevenson's "Markheim."

9:30 p. m.—Doctors at Work (WIBA, WMAQ): "Best Foot Forward."

Discussion

9:15 p. m.—Public Affairs (WBBM): Sen. James E. Murray (D., Mont.) on "Aid to Small Business."

Variety

7:30 p. m.—Plantation Party (WMAQ): a new song, "Let's Be True Americans."

8 p. m.—Fred Allen (WBBM): the originator of "Doggie Dinners, Inc." is interviewed...Eddie Cantor (WMAQ): Phil Harris of baton fame, guest.

Musical

7 p. m.—Toby Martin (WMAQ): with David Rose's orchestra.

8:30 p. m.—Pageant of Melody (WGN): Valverde's "Clavelitos" and Donizetti's "Una Furtiva Lagrima."

12 p. m.—Music When You Want It (WENR): portions of Verdi's "Rigoletto."

Quiz

7 p. m.—Quiz Kids (WLS): brain-teasers.