

on Faith

Carl Sandburg, American poet, will discuss songs collected in his "American Song Bag" at 9 tonight at a meeting of the Knox college club in New York through WIBA and WENR. He will be introduced by Christopher Morley, author of "Kitty Foyle."

Sandburg will make another appearance on the air at 1 p. m. Saturday when he will talk on "Faith in the People" during the intermission of the Metropolitan Opera company's performance of "Madame Butterfly" through WIBA and WMAQ. Licia Albanese, Italian lyric soprano, will sing the title role of Puccini's most popular opera.

Other outstanding programs for tonight and Saturday follow, classified:

Quiz

7:30 p. m. — Information Please (WMAQ): Warden Lewis E. Lawes and Actor Boris Karloff, guests.

Drama

7 p. m.—Le Loyal (WGN): "The Poet," a mystery man of wisdom.

7:30 p. m.—Old Ranger (WLS): pearls stolen in Peru appear.

8 p. m.—Perfect Crime (WBBM): "The Mark of Murder." . . . Gang Busters (WENR): using airplanes to map get-aways for bank robberies.

8:30 p. m.—Everyman's Theater (WMAQ): Bette Davis in "Of Human Bondage" . . . Playhouse (WBBM): Luther Adler and Sylvia Sidney in Clifford Odet's "Golden Boy." . . . I Want a Divorce (WGN): the test pilot flies into trouble.

9 p. m. — Wings of Destiny (WMAQ): a photo gun in the air.

Music

7 p. m.—Lucille Manners (WIBA, WMAQ): Brahms' "Cradle Song" and "Gavotte" from Massenet's "Manon."

Variety

7 p. m.—Kate Smith (WBBM): Milton Berle and Charlotte Greenwood in a version of "Tall, Dark, and Handsome," adopted from a new film.

9:30 p. m.—Alec Templeton-Time (WIBA, WMAQ): William Primrose, viola player, and the Vass family quintet, guests . . . Al Pearce (WBBM): Judy Canova, of hill-billy fame, guest.

Sports

6:30 p. m. — Hall of Sports (WBBM): Paul Thompson, manager of the Blackhawks, participates in sports questionnaire.

Saturdaytime

9 a. m. — Lincoln Highway (WIBA, WMAQ): Montey Wooley, comedian, in "Father Don't Understand."

11 a. m. — Education Forum (WIBA): "The Concept of Democracy Basic to Education."

11:30 a. m. — National Grange (WIBA, WMAQ): a report on activities.

12 m.—What can I Do (WBBM): the story behind the Chicago Polio club, a swim group.

12:30 p. m. — Ilka Chase (WMAQ): an interview with Ernest Truex, comedian.

1 p. m. — Metropolitan Opera (WIBA, WMAQ): "Madame Butterfly."

3:15 p. m. — Hialeah Race (WGN): the Miami Beach handicap.

3:45 p. m.—Of Men and Books (WBBM): a review of Willa Cather's "Sapphira and the Slave Girl."

4 p. m. — World Is Yours (WMAQ): the microscope.

4:30 p. m. — Curtis Institute (WMAQ): rarely performed Irish, Welsh, and scotch folk songs by Beethoven.

5:30 p. m.—Carroll College Speech Clinic (WTMJ): the experimental laboratory of speech.