

o Conduct w Symphony 35 Tonight

Arturo Toscanini will wield the baton again tonight when the NBC Symphony orchestra opens a new series under his direction. The program will be aired starting at 8:35 p. m. through WENR and at 9:30 through WIBA, will include Mozart' "Serenade No. 2 in B Flat," Haydn's "Symphony in E Flat Major, No. 99," and Strauss' tone poem, "Ein Heldenleben."

Other featured attractions for tonight follow, classified:

Musical

9 p. m.—Theater of Air (WGN): Mairion Claire and Jan Peerce in Victor Herbere't "Naughty Marietta."

6 p. m. — People's Platform (WBBM): the audience discusses the "lend-lease" bill.

7 p. m.—Rep. Estes Kefauver (WIBA): the Democrat from Tennessee on "Youth and the Present Crisis." . . . Montparnasse Forum (WIND): "The Position of China as an Industrial Nation."

9:15 p. m.—Gov. Harold E. Stassen (WR:JM): the Minnesotan talks to the Young Republicans.

Drama

7 p. m.—Knickerbocker Playhouse (WMAQ): a fib, a secretary, and—"Mary Had A Little."

7:30 p. m.—Bishop and Gargoyle (WIBA): "The Item of the Governor's Ghost."

Quiz

7 p. m.—Your Marriage Club (WBBM): whether to buy this or that is the question.

Variety

6:45 p. m.—Celebrity Circle (WBBM): Rosemary Lane, guest.

8 p. m.—Song of Your Life (WIBA, WMAQ): a girl travels 3,000 miles for an audition. . . . National Barn Dance (WLS): from the St. Paul Winter carnival.

9 p. m.—Uncle Ezra (WIBA, WMAQ): the campaign to put Rosedale on the map continues.