

Broadcast Illinois Night at 8

The Wisconsin basketball team continues its march tonight for the Big Ten championship, facing Illinois at 8 in the fieldhouse. WIBA and Bill Walker will be on hand to give you a play-by-play account.

Other highlight broadcasts for tonight follow, classified:

Musical

8:35 p. m. — NBC Symphony (WCFL): Franz Schubert's "Joachim Symphony," Haydn's "Toy Symphony," and Mozart's "Symphony Concertante" with Mischa Misckakoff directing and Carleton Cooley, violinist, as soloist.

9 p. m. — The Chicago Theater of Air (WGN): Marion Claire and Igor Gorin in operetta, "Countess Maritza."

Discussion

6 p. m. — People's Platform (WBBM): "Will Aid to Britain Lead the United States to War?"

7 p. m. — Montparnasse Forum (WIND): "The New Income Tax Regulations."

Drama

7 p. m. — Knickerbocker Playhouse (WMAQ): "Marriage in Haste," society romance.

7:15 p. m. — Man and the World (WCFL): "The World of Water Travel."

7:30 p. m. — Bishop and Gargoyle (WIBA): "The Item of the Dame and the Debutante."

Variety

8 p. m. — Barn Dance (WLS): Smiling Ed's songs and the "Sweethearts of St. Paul," male quartet are guests.

9 p. m. — Uncle Ezra (WMAQ): a Valentine party.

10 p. m. — Radio Salute (WMAQ): with Fibber McGee and Molly. Connie Boswell, Frank Morgan, and Hal Peary participate.