

Canadian Mountie Will Tell Activities On We, The People

Inner Sanctum Mystery Program Promises Weird Story; Carol Bruce To Be On Bernie Musical Quiz

A Canadian northwest mounted policeman, Captain William Campbell, will tell how he traveled for eight months, covering 750 miles by snow-shoes, 500 miles by steamer, 1,510 miles by rail, 350 miles by horseback and 240 miles by dog-sled, to "get his man," when Campbell appears on "We, The People," Tuesday over WABC at 9 p. m.

Bearing the "take a look and give a shudder" title of "The Case of the Strangled Snake," the "Inner Sanctum Mystery" program over WJZ Tuesday at 9:35 p. m. promises to be one of the eeriest stories yet presented on the series.

Carol Bruce, the lovely singing star from Louisiana Purchase has selected "I Hear A Rhapsody" for her solo number on the Ben Bernie Musical Quiz Tuesday at 8:00 p. m., over WJZ. Other features of the program include songs by the Bailey Sisters, a novelty number by the Ol' Maestro and all the lads and the musical quiz.

The perennial favorite, "In The Gloaming" will be sung by the King's Men on the Fibber McGee and Molly program Tuesday at 9:30 p. m. over WEAJ. Billy Mills' orchestra will open the program on a new note titled "It's High Time," and the band's featured tune will be "Keep An Eye On Your Heart." Fibber

McGee and Molly will entertain with their own particular brand of comedy at 79 Wistful Vista.

A seventy year old man who spent three years sleeping in the New York subway system for lack of a home and funds will appear on the Court of Missing Heirs program Tuesday at 8.00 p. m. over WABC, to claim the $6,500 estate uncovered for him by program executives. He is George Adam Ruge and he was found living in the Mills Hotel, picturesque New York flophouse, after the room clerk had heard Ruge's case dramatized on the Court program. When found. Ruge was delivering box lunches to office workers in exchange for two meals a day and a dollar in tips. The money was left him by his brother William. Moving into industrial Youngstown, Ohio, on Tuesday for their "Treasure Chest" program, the Horace Heidt troupe appropriately uses the subject of "Industry" for contest questions. Music includes "Oh Dear, What Can't the Matter Be." "Friendly Tavern Polka," "Where is Our Love," "Swanee River," "Well, Good-Bye Now" and "Seeing Nellie Home." The program is on WEAJ at 8.30 p. m.
