

Problem Of Caring For Boy Foundling To Face Cantor

Mortimer Meek To Tell The Truth For One Entire Day Under The Influence Of Washington's Birthday Spirit

The problem of caring for a boy foundling will throw Eddie Cantor into a popeyed dither with Dinah Shore, Harry von Zell, the Mad Russian and Edgar Fairchild's musicians on the "Time to Smile" broadcast over WEAJ Wednesday, at 9:00 p. m.

Mortimer Meek, feeling the inspiring effects of Washington's Birthday decides to follow in the great statesman's footsteps and for one whole day tell nothing but the truth on Wednesday, 7:30 p. m. over WABC. Frank Readick, Adelaide Klein, Doris Dudley and Jack Smart star in the series.

Lindy, of Lindy's Restaurants, Broadway, will be the man-you-don't-expect-to-meet on the Fred Allen Star Theatre program Wednesday, 9:00 p. m., over WABC. Lindy's eating houses are famous as the rendezvous of newspapermen, actors and sportsmen, and Lindy sends his delicatessen specialties, such as herrings, salmon, sturgeon, etc., to Hollywood exiles from Gotham. Kenny Baker will sing, and the Martins will harmonize. Al Goodman's orchestra will supply the musical background, and the Mighty Allen Art Players will do their stuff.

There's a mysterious Cuban dance team . . . and there's a jewel smuggling . . . and there's a murder! These are the elements that make up the "Mr. District Attorney" drama for Wednesday, at 9:30 p. m. over WEAJ. Subtitled, "The Case of the Capetown Light," the yarn promises to keep up the high standard of dramatic interest that has made "Mr. District Attorney" one of radio's most popular dramatic features.

The United States Marines will be enrolled in Kay Kyser's "College of Musical Knowledge" on Wednesday, when that program goes on WEAJ at 10:00 p. m., and Kyser and his arranger George Dunning will introduce and dedicate an original tune to the Marines.

A shooting gallery on Gotham's Sixth Avenue will be the scene of action during the "Manhattan at Midnight" drama heard Wednesday, at 8:00 p. m. over WJZ.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 19

Eastern Standard P. M.—Subtract One

Additional Society News

(Continued from Preceding Page)

Mrs. Richard Zeller, S. Collett-st, entertained members of the Enjayette Bridge club in her home Tuesday evening.

Prizes in the card games were won by Mrs. Frank Renard, Mrs. James McBarron and Mrs. Harold King. Mrs. H. W. Carroll was a guest.

Next meeting will be held March 4 with Mrs. T. E. Hackett, N. Jameson-av.

Mrs. R. E. Cashman, S. Elizabeth-st, will be hostess to members of the Clarion club Thursday evening.

Merry Circle Pinochle club will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Ward Wert, Fairview-av.

WOMEN EXPECT ANOTHER CROWD FOR OPERETTA

Lima Mothersingers, following a successful showing of their operetta "Heartless House" Tuesday evening in Central high school auditorium, are preparing for an even larger crowd at the final showing at 8 p. m. Wednesday in the South high auditorium.

The three-act operetta was composed by Winifred Moore especially for women's voices.

The story is based around a group of women who have banded together to prove to themselves