

al VFW America' Show Tonight

The Veterans of Foreign Wars' 10th annual "Hello, America" broadcast will be presented tonight at 10:30, through WIBA, with Secretary of the Navy Frank Knox delivering the principal address. Mabel Tanner, president of the VFW auxiliary, and Joseph C. Menendez, national commander, also will participate in the program.

◇ ◇ ◇

Other outstanding programs for tonight and Fridaytime follow, classified:

Music

9:30 a. m.—Chicago Symphony Orchestra (WGN): Rudolph Ganz, pianist, highlights own composition, "Concerto for Piano, E Flat Major."

12 p. m.—Music as Desired (WENR): Stowkowski and the Philadelphia orchestra playing Bach's "Toccatla and Fugue in D Minor" and Debussy's "Afternoon of a Faun."

◇ ◇ ◇

Discussion

8:35 p. m.—Town Meeting of Air (WENR): "Are We a United People?" with Author Erskine Caldwell participating.

9:30 p. m.—Sen. Robert A. Taft (R., Ohio) (WMAQ): on "The Lend-Lease Bill."

◇ ◇ ◇

Quizzes

6:30 p. m.—Vox Pop (WBBM): from San Juan, Puerto Rico, Gov. Guy J. Swope competes.

7 p. m.—Ask It Basket (WBBM): radio location questions.

◇ ◇ ◇

Drama

7:30 p. m.—The Aldrich Family (WMAQ): Henry discovers the difference of "to eat or not to eat."

◇ ◇ ◇

Variety

7 p. m.—Baby Snooks (WIBA, WMAQ): Frank Morgan uses a lie detector with no results.

7:30 p. m.—University of Chicago Mirror (WGN): special broadcast honoring the alumni association's annual revue.

8 p. m.—Bing Crosby (WIBA, WMAQ): after vacationing, Bing has George Raft and Sabu of the screen and Vincent Gomez, guitarist, as guests.

9 p. m.—Rudy Vallee (WIBA, WMAQ): Billie Burke enjoys John Barrymore so much that she is willing to have John, the southern gentleman, leave her his mansion plus a mortgage.

◇ ◇ ◇

Fridaytime

11:30 a. m.—Farm and Home Hour (WIBA, WMAQ): highlights from the fifth National Farm Institute in Des Moines, Ia.

1 p. m.—Music Appreciation (WIBA): the second act of Bizet's "Carmen."

2:15 p. m.—Philadelphia Orchestra (WGN): with Jose Iturbi conducting and highlighting Dvorak's "New World" symphony and Glinka's overture, "Russian and Ludmilla."

3:15 p. m.—Camp Grant Opening (WGN): Gov. Dwight H. Green, Illinois, and Gov. Heil participate in the opening of the new United States camp at Rockford, Ill.